

Says Ex-Reliefee Buys Three New Cars In 18 Months

DEPUTY-REEVE ASKS INVESTIGATION OF "MON-STROUS" CASE

CITES MILLAR WILL

"Does the relief committee ever investigate the position of a relief recipient to see if he is able to pay back the municipality?" asked Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale at a town council meeting on Monday evening. "The reason I ask is that I am told that a person receiving relief four or five years ago has bought three new cars in a year and a half. That strikes me as monstrous."

"A man may have a turn of good luck," said Councillor A. V. Higginson, chairman of the relief committee. "I don't think that we can go back and ask for a return of the relief given them."

"At the time of the Millar will distribution there was an act passed in the legislature to enable the city of Toronto to collect relief paid to one of the winners," said Mr. Vale. "I don't know if that would apply here."

"The relief committee will investigate it," said Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd.

"If Mr. Vale will give me the information, I will be glad to have Mr. Sloss go into it," said Mr. Higginson.

VISIT WELLINGTON

Among those attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Friends Service Committee at Wellington on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hill, Newmarket, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Starr, Bogartown. While there they were entertained in "Fellowship Lodge," an old hotel which Rev. Harry Parry, formerly of Newmarket, has turned into a tourist home.

DOESN'T MAKE SENSE - CITIZEN

His water bills were larger in the winter time than in the summer time, when he was watering the garden, complained Wm. Carley to the town council on Monday evening.

"Some have two bathrooms and only one meter," said Mr. Carley. "Some have no meter. Others have meters that aren't working."

"Two bathrooms are really an extravagance, Bill," joked Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale. Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd promised that C. C. Rachar, town electrical engineer, would investigate the complaint.

Was One Month Short Of 50 Years Wed, Dies Suddenly

CAME OF PIONEER U. E. L. STOCK, LIVED HERE 34 YEARS

A home-loving man and one instinctively recognized by children of the neighborhood as a friend, Edwin Charles Lloyd died suddenly at his home, 95 Eagle St., in his 74th year, on Thursday.

Mr. Lloyd had been in good health but due to arthritis had been unable to get away from his own premises in recent years. He was still active and did a good share of the gardening and outside work about his home.

He was the son of Elizabeth Coon and Charles Lloyd and was born on the Lloyd homestead on the fourth concession of King township near Kettleby.

He was of Welsh and Irish descent. The Lloyd family had been a Pennsylvania Quaker family and came to King township at United Empire Loyalists.

His grandfather, Thomas Lloyd, was born in Pennsylvania, in June, 1798, and was brought to Canada in 1809. Thomas Lloyd's wife was born in New Brunswick in July, 1798. They had ten children. Charles was born in 1837 at Kettleby. His wife, Elizabeth Coon, was born in Whitby township in 1841 and died at Mount Albert in 1901.

He married Alfreda Dales, who was born in King township in 1868.

VETERANS WILL RECEIVE UNIT CERTIFICATE

The next monthly meeting of the veterans will take place on Monday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. in the Bugle Band hall, when Comrade R. E. Matthews, vice-pres. of the Canadian Corps Association in Ontario, will present the unit membership certificate and address the meeting.

They would have celebrated their golden wedding on Nov. 20. They married for some years and then moved to Newmarket 34 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Mary Elizabeth Lloyd, at home, and one brother, Wm. T. Lloyd, Mount Albert.

He was a Liberal in politics, and a member of the United church, formerly a Methodist.

Rev. R. R. McMahon conducted services at the home and at Newmarket cemetery. Pallbearers were Charles Walton, Herbert Webster, Harry Webster, Stanley Barradell, Dudley Hencock, all of Kettleby, and Harry Lewis, Schomberg.

Friends were present from Mount Albert, Tottenham, Schomberg, Bond Head, Aurora, Toronto, Sault Ste. Marie, Kettleby and other points.

Davis Employees Get Ten Per Cent Increase In Pay

INCREASE WILL PUT EXTRA MONEY IN CIRCULATION IN TOWN

A general increase in wages of ten per cent for all employees is announced by the Davis Leather Co.

As there are 360 employees on the pay-roll, this will mean a substantial increase in the town's purchasing power and prosperity. The company has been very busy this fall, partly as a result of rush orders by buyers who fear increased prices as the war goes on.

WANDERER RETURNS

Joe Dales, who wrote The Era several interesting letters from northern Ontario, returned home last week when work petered out in the Red Lake district. He brought with him a friend, Bob McFerran.

DISLOCATES WRIST

Howard McElmoynt dislocated a bone in his wrist while at work on Monday morning.

FIRST WAR CONCERT WILL BE ON NOV. 3

Preparations are well advanced for the concert for the Red Cross Society being put on by a group of amateurs in the town hall on Friday, Nov. 3.

A one-act play will be presented by Barbara, Murray, Donald and Virginia Davis. This will be "Dark Lady of the Sonnets," by Bernard Shaw.

Barbara Davis will dance, Miss Gwen Lambert, accomplished soloist, accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Boulding, Aurora, will give a voice recital. Harold Rutledge, gold medalist, will give a violin recital, accompanied by Miss Kathleen Rutledge.

MOST OF TOP PRIZES GO TO YORK PLOWMEN

PLOWING MATCH FINDS YORK COUNTY WELL UP

YORK BOYS EXCEL

While showers interfered to some extent with the attendance at the international plowing match at Brockville last week, it did not dampen the enthusiasm of the plowmen who made an all-time high record of 659 entries, with York county well represented in all classes.

According to W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative, who had two inter-county teams competing, the plowmen of York carried off the great majority of the trophies offered as top prizes, including what might be called the grand championship of a trip to Great Britain to visit the matches there.

This new prize, won by Ed. Timbers of Milliken, and a similar trip for second prize, won by Robt. Brown, of Galt, were provided by the Salada Tea Company but will probably have to be held over until after the war.

The inter-county walking plow competition for teams of 22 boys also had a record entry of 22 counties, making 66 boys plowing in one class and was won by the Hamilton county team that lost to York last year by half a point. This year's York team was all new boys and while they dropped to eighth this year, they were only a dozen marks behind the winners. These boys plowed in the regular classes the day before and the day after, with gratifying success.

In Class 3, Norman Tapscott of Milliken won fourth out of over 40 entries while in Class 4, with over 20 entries, Bert Irwin of Agincourt won the class and the Hon. P. M. Dewan gold watch, Leslie Smith of Gormley sixth and Herb. Jarvis, of Milliken, 12th. On Thursday, Herb. Jarvis plowed in the open class for all ages and won the Fleury-Bissell special.

On Friday three of the boys plowed in the under-18 class and Bert Irwin won again, this time the Moffat Dunlop gold watch, while Herb. Jarvis was fourth and Leslie Smith sixth. Bert Irwin also won the Kiwanis silver tray for best land plowed in stubble by a boy 16 or under.

The new inter-county tractor class brought out 11 teams and was topped by two new counties in this work, Dundas and North Simcoe, with York third. Alex. Logan of Ringwood and Murray Timbers of Locust Hill had previously each won a second prize in the regular classes and a 12th and fifth respectively.

This week the boys of York are plowing their lands for the Junior Farmers' home plowing competition, judging of which begins on Monday, Oct. 23. It is from this contest that the boys under 20 are selected for the inter-county classes the following year.

SEND CLOTHING TO ENGLISH CHILDREN

Mrs. Andrew J. Davis has received the following letter from Kathleen P. Williamson, assistant secretary, Admiral Hood Chapter, I. O. D. E., Toronto. "The members of the Admiral Hood Chapter I. O. D. E. wish me to thank you, and your group, for the very generous and beautifully made articles of clothing sent to us to forward to the needy children in England."

"We took your boxes to headquarters on Tuesday and both the national president and municipal regent gaped at the beautiful and very useful articles."

"I really haven't enough adjectives to express what is in all our hearts for them, thank you all very, very much. "Will hope you can get to a sewing meeting when it is at my house that you may see how we carry on and be able to tell your group."

IS IMPROVED

Mrs. Edwin Charles Lloyd, who suffered a shock when her husband died suddenly last Thursday, is feeling better this week.

THANK-OFFERING HELD BY W. M. S. AUXILIARY

The thank-offering meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society auxiliary of Trinity United church was held Thursday, Oct. 12, with Mrs. M. B. Seldon, the president, presiding.

A very helpful devotional period was conducted by Mrs. W. R. Stephens.

The study of India was introduced, the subject, "India's Rural Millions," being taken by Mrs. R. E. Manning, Mrs. F. Robinson and Mrs. J. A. Matfield.

A social time was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

IN KITCHENER

Wm. Neufeld, former Sharon farmer and softball player, has moved with his family to Kitchener, where he has purchased a small business.

ENTERTAIN KIDS ON HALLOWE'EN

Newmarket Lions club will arrange Halloween entertainment for the boys and girls of the public and separate schools again this year, under the leadership of R. L. Pritchard, chairman of the boys' and girls' work committee.

Prizes will be given for the best fancy and comic costumes worn.

BADMINTON CLUB HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

At a meeting of the badminton club held last evening, the following officers were elected for the coming season: president, George Philmister; vice-president, Jack Hamilton; secretary-treasurer, Geraldine Wainman. The badminton court will be ready for next Monday evening.

IS ILL

Friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. Bert Green, Timothy St., is seriously ill with heart trouble.

SHOW COURTESY TO WEARERS OF KHAKI

The Strand theatre management has announced that soldiers in uniform will be admitted for 20 cents.

MISS M. A. STEWART WILL BE GUEST SPEAKER

The Newmarket Home and School Association will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, Oct. 24, at the Stuart Scott school at 3 p.m. sharp.

Miss Margaret A. Stewart, Ph. B., M.A., of the Home Institute of the Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission, will be the speaker. Her subject, "Home and School Lighting and Planning Meals for Health," (illustrated with pictures and charts), should be of great interest to everyone. A record attendance at this meeting is hoped for.

Council Gives Permanent Answer To Annoying Query

SOLICITOR PAYS TRIBUTE TO INGENUITY OF COUNCIL

Members of the town council don't like having to answer the same question week after week. Constable Kenneth Mount chooses to work a seventh night a week on patrol duty and is paid for the seventh night, not on the town pay-sheet, but by vote of the council. As a result, this payment appears in the town press after each council meeting, and Councillor Wm. Dixon, chairman of the police committee, told the town council on Monday evening, the public keeps asking what it is for.

Mr. Dixon asked that the extra payment be put on the town pay-sheet.

"We understand the payment, others don't," said Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd.

Councillor D. O. Mungovan said that he would support the move to have the payment buried, "if Mr. Dixon gets busy about a third policeman." Mr. Mungovan said that this matter had been "hanging fire too long."

"We thought that we should leave that to the new council," said Mr. Dixon. "It is not long before nomination night. And the police don't feel that they are over-worked."

"Mr. Mungovan is quite right

SAND CAUSES TROUBLE

More difficulty is being experienced by the town with sand in the water mains supplying the Office Specialty Manufacturing Co. This sand came from the new Strigley St. well, but has been in the mains for a long time, town officials stated on the last occasion when there were complaints from the company.

MOVES TO OWEN SOUND

Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Hansler, Jr., moved to Owen Sound on Saturday, where Mr. Hansler has secured work in the tannery.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

J. E. Gowland, local chiropractor, will attend the annual convention and clinical conference of the Associated Chiropractors and Drugless Therapists at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on Friday and Saturday.

LION BROUGHT IN, HANDCUFFED

Members of the Lions club got a great laugh on Monday evening when Constable Kenneth Mount brought in one of the club's members handcuffed, to keep up his attendance. The prisoner, E. H. Adams, a few minutes later seconded a motion by Dr. C. E. VanderVoort that an effort be made to have every member present at the next meeting.

"We don't want any Hitlerism," said J. O. Little when someone suggested that the members should be brought in by force if necessary.

W. M. Cockburn introduced two guests, Selby Evans, Sharon, and his son, Harvey, who entertained the club with several dramatic recitations. Vice-president Dr. J. G. Cock and a team "spelled down" a team under H. M. Gladman in a "true or false" Canadian history and government contest conducted by A. N. Belugin.

HIS ANCESTOR PUT NAME TO U. S. PROTEST

BRILLIANT YOUNG LAWYER WAS SON OF YORK COUNTY

WAS ONLY 39 YEARS

On Thursday, Oct. 12, was recorded the passing of Morley H. Breuls, barrister-at-law, of Toronto, and a well known figure in the county of York.

For a considerable time previous to his decease, Mr. Breuls had been in indifferent health, which was rendered more precarious by an accident in which his leg was broken, requiring serious operations, and much time in hospital. He suffered much.

Mr. Breuls was the descendant of pioneer stock that first came to this county from London, England, well over a century ago and settled in the township of Markham. He was the youngest son of the late James A. Breuls and Louisa Laura Breuls (nee Mann), and was born in North Gwillimbury, July 21, 1900.

Mr. Breuls attended the Belhaven public school, the Sutton continuation school, and Newmarket high school before taking his course in law at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, where he was graduated in 1924, after having served for five years, under articles in the office of Messrs. Oslar, Hoskin, and Harcourt, where he read law for the late Hon. Wallace Nesbitt, K. C., former judge of the supreme court of Canada. On graduation he was sworn in as a solicitor and called to the bar, and since has practised his profession in Toronto, until the breakdown of his health.

A familiar figure in the courts, he appeared in many important cases before the supreme court, being considered a specially qualified expert on mining, company, and patent law. He was a director on the boards of many companies, and president of Flint Lake Gold Mines, Limited.

Mr. Breuls assisted the Hon. Mr. Justice W. R. Riddell, of the supreme court of Ontario, in the (Page 2, Col. 7)

BROKEN HIP PROVES FATAL TO AGED MAN

A broken hip, suffered a month ago, caused the death of Murdoch Seth Chapman on October 2, in York county hospital, due to his advanced age.

Born near Sutton on May 5, 1852, Mr. Chapman was a farmer and beekeeper. He married Sarah Victoria Yorke on Aug. 8, 1884, who predeceased him in February of last year.

Mr. Chapman was a staunch Liberal in politics. He was a veteran of the Fenian Raid, and had lived practically all his life at Baldwin. He moved to Newmarket a few years ago, living here seven years. After the death of his wife, he returned to Baldwin to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, with whom he lived at the time of his death.

He is survived by three sons, Glen and Eric, of Baldwin, and Bertram, of B. C., two sisters, Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, of Baldwin, and Mrs. Lyman Watson, of Roche's Point.

The funeral service was held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Tomlinson on Oct. 4. Rev. C. E. Fockler, of Keswick, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. B. Serwick of Keswick. Interment was made in Briar Hill, Sutton.

The pallbearers were, Frank Aird, Chas. Tomlinson, Wilfred Riddell, Chas. Anderson, Ivan Tomlinson and David Davidson.

DIES AS RESULT OF FALL, BREAKING HIP

As a result of a fall seven or eight weeks ago, when she broke her hip, Mrs. Richard Haakett died in York county hospital Saturday at midnight. She had been in hospital ever since the accident. She was in her 70th year.

Lucy Louise Farley, the daughter of Bridget Cunningham and David Farley, was born in Newmarket on Ontario St., and lived on that same street for 73 years.

Forty-nine years ago she was married to Richard Haakett, of Newmarket, who died 17 years ago. She was a member of St. John's Roman Catholic church.

Surviving are two daughters: (Marie) Mrs. Michael Cullen, Toronto; and (Florence) Mrs. George Knaus, Newmarket; 11 grandchildren and two nieces, Mrs. Irene Scott, Toronto, and Mrs. Edward Brackey, Toronto.

Rev. Father Joseph Muecke, brother of the rector, conducted the funeral mass at St. John's church on Tuesday morning. Interment was in St. John's cemetery. Pallbearers were John McTaggart, Leslie Ferguson, Norman Tunney, T. F. Doyle, Frank Doyle, Leo Cull. In recent years Mrs. Haakett made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Knaus.

Town Assumes Light War Tax For First Month, From Sept. 12

DOMESTIC CONSUMERS WILL NOT FEEL NEW WAR TAX YET

The town will pay the eight per cent war tax on domestic electric accounts for the first month, Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale announced at the town council meeting Monday evening. This would be for the part of September since the tax became effective, Sept. 12.

Mr. Vale said that this was the recommendation of the water and light committee, and that the suggestion had the approval of the finance committee.

N. L. Mathews, K. C., clerk and solicitor, said that the tax would in future be computed by the new machine in the clerk's office.

"Who has to pay the tax?" asked Reeve F. A. Lundy.

"Residences," said Mr. Mathews. "Churches?" asked Mr. Lundy. "No."

"Schools?" "No."

"It's just another case of real estate bearing the burden," said Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd.

"No, tenants will have to pay it," said Mr. Mathews.

LODGE CELEBRATES TRAFALGAR DAY

The Sons of England celebrated Trafalgar Day by holding a junior and senior lodge social evening in the lodge hall on Tuesday evening.

Slaughter Of Wild Life In Whitchurch Deplored

WHITCHURCH COUNCIL TAKES STEPS TO ESTABLISH GAME PRESERVE

Six hundred farmers and farm women petitioned the Whitchurch township council in session on Saturday at Vandonr to take steps immediately to have the municipality declared a game preserve within the meaning of the act governing municipal game preserves, such as is in force in King, Markham, Vaughan, Pickering, and many other townships.

The petitioners were represented by two deputy game wardens, Ben. Langley and Fred Terry, also by Fred Smith, all resident farmers.

"We have become a dumping ground for everybody holding a gun license," declared Mr. Langley, who headed the deputation. He said that the reception given the petitions circulated seemed to be almost unanimous, and declared that hundreds of city people make pilgrimages into Whitchurch every weekend, shooting off the wild life that is becoming all too scarce.

The deputation pointed out that it was too late this year to accomplish much, but if a start was made the necessary steps would be taken to share in the benefits of the act next fall.

Council gave the deputation a sympathetic hearing. Reeve Earl Toole told them he was never opposed to the idea, and in fact looked on it quite favorably. Councillor George Leary said he would like to see something done to stop this township becoming a dumping ground for hunters.

Councillors H. Kidd and H. Wells also voiced approval of taking steps to create a preserve, while Deputy-Reeve Jesse Cook, who was not present when the deputation was heard, later expressed his desire to set up the necessary by-law.

It was decided that Reeve Toole should interview the department of game and fisheries this week, who, it was said, would set the machinery in motion so that the township would come under the act next year.

Markham township this year will derive a revenue of $800 from the sale of licenses to outside hunters who would be permitted to hunt for pheasants this fall on certain days set apart by the department. Non-resident hunters are assessed $2 each if they have a gun license, and resident farmers will be required to pay only 25 cents for a license, but of course they too must first procure a gun license from the department. This is necessary whether or not the township becomes a game preserve.

BUGLE BAND SOFTBALL TEAM WILL BE IN LIMELIGHT WHEN TROPHY PRESENTED MONDAY

Presentation of the Mulock trophy by W. P. Mulock, M. P., to the winners of the town softball league will be made at a banquet to be held in the R.S.A. bugle band hall on Monday evening.

The bugle band team as winners of the league will receive crests and also the trophy.

Other guests will include Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd, Deputy-Reeve

JOINS ARMY

Newmarket's second war veteran to enlist again was Albert Skelton, who during the Great War served with the imperial army in Salonika on all three fronts, was invalided home to England early in 1915, and was later sent back to France, taking part in the last battle of Cambrai.

Discharged in 1919, he came to Canada in 1920 and to Newmarket in 1927. He has a wife and one daughter, Audrey, who attends Newmarket high school. Photo by courtesy of Budd Studio.

Howard Spenceley, Mount Albert boxer, has enlisted in the 45th Highlanders. Spenceley has been making quite a career for himself as a professional in the United States.

JUST A "JALOPY," SAYS JOE SPILLETTE

Purchase of a used truck for the water and light department from J. E. Nesbitt, for $550 and the old truck, was approved by the town council on Monday evening.

Councillor A. D. Evans, chairman of the water and light committee, made the recommendation. Councillor J. L. Spillette, another member of the committee, said he had seen the truck which the committee proposed to buy and thought it good value.

"What would it cost to repair the old truck?" asked Reeve F. A. Lundy.

"You couldn't repair it to make it into a truck," said Mr. Spillette. "What would it make it into?" asked Mr. Lundy.

"A jalopy," said Mr. Spillette. Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd thought that a new truck would avoid the waste of gasoline and oil in the winter time when an old truck would be left running.

"Big companies always keep their trucks running, even for half an hour," said Mr. Spillette. "It is more economical than letting the engine get cold and having to warm it up again."

The road and bridge committee chairman, Councillor A. V. Higginson, secured the council's approval of an expenditure of $65 on their truck for repairs.

"Did the committee recommend the purchase of a new truck when you got that one?" asked Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale.

"Yes, but we got beat down and beat down on our estimates," said Mr. Higginson. "So we decided to buy a used truck."

Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd approved of repairing the truck. "It might be nearly as good as new after repairs," he said.

each if they have a gun license, and resident farmers will be required to pay only 25 cents for a license, but of course they too must first procure a gun license from the department. This is necessary whether or not the township becomes a game preserve.

BE PREPARED, BUY AN APPLE, HELP A BOY JOIN IN THE FUN AND SHARE THE JOY

On Saturday Newmarket Boy Scouts will offer to the public of Newmarket some enticing apples from the York Orchards of W. P. Mulock, M. P. They will sell the apples for as much more than they are worth as you care to pay. Anything from five cents to five dollars will buy an apple.

The money will go into the treasury of the Newmarket Boy Scouts Association of which Robert Martin is president, W. H. Evans is treasurer and Alex. Spoor is secretary. Last year's net proceeds, which approached $100, were used to pay provincial association levy, and to help the two troops to get on their feet. A small balance remains in the treasury. Newmarket bought 12 bushels last year, and it is expected that the response will be equally great this year.

CO-OPERATION AMONG BUSINESS MEN

Barrie garage owners have announced that all garages except one will be closed on Sundays. A different garage will remain open each Sunday. The purpose is "that employees may be given a day off each week." The announcement is made by the Barrie Garage Dealers' Association. In another advertisement in the Barrie Examiner the same association announces that its 20 members "find it impossible" to continue to give credit. "We are forced to adopt a strictly cash business, except for those with approved credit rating."

A Newmarket Angle

Here are a group of garage owners co-operating to improve the condition of their employees and to protect themselves. Incidentally, they are doing the public a good turn in declining to give credit. This is a good opportunity to point out again the advantages, both for themselves and for the public, which would result from organization of Newmarket's business men into an association. Merchants would find the greatest value in an association under energetic leadership.

"ROLL OUT THE BARRELS"

In spite of the fact that the town got as far as the printing of its by-law (whether it was actually read three times and passed, we don't believe anybody could say without consulting the clerk's minute-book), municipal garbage collection never became a fact in Newmarket. The effect of the discussion and the publicity was to attract a couple more private enterprisers to the business previously enjoyed by two persons. Newmarket was going to have municipal garbage collection with the dawn of 1938. Now Midland talks of municipal garbage collection for 1940. Bi-weekly collection, it was suggested in the Midland council, would cost $2,300 for a man and a helper. "It wouldn't cost most people nearly as much as they pay now," said one councillor. There, however, arose the difficulty in Newmarket. Many people were not paying anything for garbage removal and so they would be paying considerably more. Landlords, until they passed it along in increased rent, would be paying for garbage removal for each of their properties.

Still A Good Plan

These were the difficulties raised, but we still think that a municipal garbage removal system would be to the benefit of all. We will watch and see how Midland gets along. That town must be pulling up out of its troubles when its council can consider new imposts.

PRICE INCREASES

The public welcomed the appointment by Ottawa of a commodity price control board. That board has a very difficult job, to decide what price increases are justified and what are not. The discount on Canadian money in the United States justifies the increase in price of some commodities, and the increase in price of one commodity, increasing the cost of living (and presumably wages), justifies an increase in price of other commodities.

Are They Justified?

Some increases in price, however, are not justified. For instance, an increase in the price of butter, with thousands of tons of surplus butter in storage, is not justified without an increase in the price paid the producer for cream. There is no justification for increased retail prices for meat without increased prices to the primary producer for his livestock.

According to a Letter-Writer

We quote from a letter appearing in the Toronto Star of Oct. 14: "When hogs sold at from $8.50 to $9 we paid 25 cents a pound for chops. Today hogs are selling at $7.75 to $8 and chops are 34 cents a pound. There is no change in live cattle but the price of beef has boosted from 5 cents to 10 cents per pound. Hides have increased 5 cents to 6 cents per pound. Some six weeks ago a report stated that there was in the neighborhood of 20,000 tons of butter in storage and still we are paying 6 cents per pound more for butter. The commissioner of welfare says eggs are up from 29 cents to 35 cents but eggs have gone up from 25 cents to 44 cents."

SCHOMBERG'S NEW TITLE

The tidy little village of Schomberg on the west border of our county has this year won the Ontario rural softball intermediate B title. We extend congratulations to the Schomberg softballers on their success.

HELP US TO KEEP PACE

May we take this opportunity of reminding our readers that we will appreciate their courtesy in providing us with the names of men and boys enlisting for military service. Men enlisting are invited to send The Era full names, ages, parents' names, units and other particulars of interest. If you know any names of Newmarket, Aurora or district volunteers which The Era has missed please let us have them.

Mrs. Craig and Miss Campbell of Toronto were visiting Mrs. J. P. Hunter last week.

Mrs. James Moran and daughter of Barrie were visitors at Mr. J. P. O'Malley's this week.

Mr. Jas. Murphy of Toronto, son of Mr. Edward Murphy, formerly of this town, spent Sunday at Mr. Jas. Kelman's.

A friendly match of football between the high school and the modelles took place on the fair grounds on Monday afternoon and resulted in favor of the former by three straight goals.

Last Friday, while Chas. Armitage was buying some cattle down the second of Whitechurch, he had occasion to cross a creek upon an inclined tree. In attempting the feat, he accidentally slipped into the water, which was up to his waist, but fortunately with no serious consequences.

At a meeting on Monday it was decided to build a brick parsonage next summer upon the lot immediately adjoining the Christian church on the north side, and to move the shed on the north side of the lot to the north-east corner.

Last week another valuable machine was added to the plant of Wm. Cane and Sons Mfg. Co., which will enable the firm to turn out more in the ash and donut department with much greater facility.

The opening of the new Methodist church at Queensville is to take place on the second Sunday in November.

About 3 p.m. on Saturday the fire brigade was called to the Central hotel, a burning chimney having communicated with the inside wheeling of the roof and fill-

POT-POURRI

BY GOLDEN GLOW

There are so many things claiming our attention these days that one scarcely knows where to begin, most certainly the end is not in sight. Chief among duties in our gardens and flower-borders is clearing away flowers that have bloomed and faded, and now, added to that, the countless ones the frost claimed. We have had some rather severe frosts, and now but the hardest of our autumn flowers remain. However, we still have the corn moon marigold, tansy, the lovely African and French ones are frosted, the Helianthus, purple, lemon-yellow and a sort of golden-bronze shade, tinged with terra-cotta, the Michauxia daisy, that dainty mauve daisy-like flower, and of course what we call the Japanese sunflower, that brightens up many an odd corner for us.

The Barberry bushes and others are displaying their berries amid changing foliage, making the bushes just as attractive as if they were flowers with their rosy red color. The maples are glowing with brilliant red this year due to the early frost, and other trees are turning yellow. Soon now we will get a really hard frost and down will come all the leaves, and we'll have the autumn scent of burning leaves for days.

What a busy time the neighbors have had exchanging slips of different house-plants. Getting what we want for the house re-potted and carried in-doors, and wondering as always where on earth we are going to find accommodation for all we want! The regular annual autumn problem!

By the way, don't cut your grass too close late in the fall, it injures the grass roots. If you haven't already divided your perennials, do so at once, if you intend to, so that they may get established in their new quarters before winter. We all have that sickening feeling of "what's the use?" with this terrible war facing us, but believe me it is one sure way to help us "keep steady," and may I once more repeat that little saying that has brought encouragement to so many garden lovers: "there's more heartiness to be found in a garden than grows in the pansy-bed."

That "minstrel-show" rabbit still disports itself around our district, but now there is the family as well, and really they are cute! If only they were not so very destructive! If something isn't done soon we'll have to call out one of the military units to cope with the situation—sort of rifle practice! Did you ever read that amusing little book called "Figs is Pigs"? It is about a pair of guinea-pigs that were shipped to a certain address, and during the red-tape alterations that ensued between the sender and the one to whom they were consigned, those guinea-pigs increased very substantially in number. Well, that's what is happening around here.

Then the tiny baby squirrels darting about! I suppose living so near the edge of the town they have easy access to our nut trees, and they also appreciate the goodies we all put out for them. However, they too can become rather a nuisance when they locate in one's attic; I heard one scampering about on top of our roof the other day, but it didn't seem to have found a way in. I hope it won't!

Another thing that afflicts us is the autumn mice. I really believe we'd be well advised to leave traps set, then if we didn't catch them, should they get in, they would probably eat the bait and so we would be made aware of their presence and act accordingly.

The "black-out" last Friday evening was certainly a grim reminder of what our allies in the old country have to put up with every night, and we can't more easily appreciate our merces over here at home in Canada. It was a particularly dark night, too, and anyone abroad on the streets must have appreciated the bright spots made by different citizens who kept their verandah or gatepost lights going all evening. Let us be thankful for our splendid lighting system!

Then, too, this is the time for harvest festivals in all the churches. The Anglican church, St. Paul's, was to celebrate last Sunday, Oct. 1, and the date was set some time ago, before the Archbishop of Canterbury proclaimed Sunday, Oct. 1, as a "world day of prayer and intercession in connection with the war," so the rector combined the two, and large congregations attended all three services, held communion at 8 a.m., matins and holy communion at 11 a.m. and a "world day of prayer services," and they will be continued for the duration of the war.

Letters are being received daily by one and another from the Old Land, telling of the conditions there. One thing stands out very prominently, and that is the evacuation of the children from big cities to smaller towns and villages and places in the country. Is it not a stupendous undertaking? But it has succeeded! I think it is absolutely wonderful!

ing the upper story with smoke. Little damage was done to the hotel, but the extra pressure on the mains forced a temporary plug out of the pipe on Garbutt Hill, in front of the high school, and the street was flooded before the engineer knew where all the water was going.

BORN—In town, Oct. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Robertson, a daughter.

MARRIED—On Oct. 6, at the Methodist parsonage, Newmarket, by the Rev. H. B. W. Hill, Mr. Henry Ward of the township of Whitechurch, to Miss Millie Eade of Aurora.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents, on Oct. 18, Mr. W. C. Widdifield, B.A., to Miss Emma Cane, third daughter of Wm. Cane, Esq., Mayor of Newmarket. Rev. L. W. Hill officiated.

WOMEN'S HOBBY CLUB HAS FIVE CENT FEE

The Women's Hobby club of Union St. and district was organized Oct. 21, 1936, with 11 members, the number now being 25, without any urge for membership. The meetings are held about every three weeks at the members' homes. Visitors are always welcome. Their creed is: When you get to know a person, know her sorrows and her cares. When you come to understand her and the burdens that she bears, when you've learned the fight she is making.

And the troubles in her way, then you find that she is different. Then you thought her yesterday. You find her faults are trivial. And there's not so much to blame in the sister you held aloof from. When you only knew her name.

Thus, the object is summed up, to create a feeling of understanding, to know what each is interested in, to develop the talents and hobbies of each individual.

The meetings are opened by singing from song sheets and answering the roll call, and closed by a repetition of the creed. Some of the roll calls have been, "Suggestions for Halloween parties," "A 'goodie' recipe for a Xmas dinner," "A New Year's resolution," "Exchange of recipes and bulbs," "Quilt patterns and apron patterns," "Something some book has taught me," "The most embarrassing moment of my life," "A limerick," "Something Irish," "Irish joke," "What I thought of the Coronation," "How we may cultivate friendship," "A place I would like to visit," "A dish prepared for thresher," "A well balanced color scheme for a room," "A common error in etiquette," "A proverb," "A valentine verse," "Hints for house-cleaning," "Garden hints," "Helpful household hints," "New games," "A sandwich, and how to make it," "How to keep good natured," "The names of trees in our front yard," "How to make something new from something old," "Sing, play or pay."

There have been discussions on such subjects as, "Books and authors," "Should Canada enter another war?" "How may Christianity avert another conflict?" "Why I like the farm," "The care of shrubs and plants," "St. George's Day, Ireland," "Household problems," "The care of chickens," "The role of women in the modern world," "Which requires more education, a business woman or a mother?" "Sex and youth," "Current events," "The challenge for peace," "A trip to Columbus, Ohio," "The rural school and the new course of study," "The place of the church in the community," "What is wrong with the women's clubs of today?"

A question box in the charge of some member creates a great deal of interest and information at each meeting. Social service work is done in the community. Some of the members attended meetings at Pickering College and reported to the club, and also worked at the craft shop. Demonstrations were given on "new ideas in knitting and crocheting," "needle-point," "cut-work," "The making of candlewick bedspreads," "rug-making," "Tatting, crocheting and smoking."

The local schools were encouraged to display work at the township hall along with the Hobby club, when Mrs. Stavert of the community welfare council spoke on handicrafts.

Two members attended a co-operative conference held at the O.A.C., Guelph, and gave splendid reports. Mrs. Denwick of Toronto spoke to the club on "Seeking a new world through co-operatives."

About 20 members visited the industries of Newmarket and reported at the next meeting. Starting at the foundry, where the members met, they learned of their work, then went to the Newmarket creamery, where milk is pasteurized and bottled, cream churned into butter, blocked, printed and stored. The use of machinery here, in place of human hands is startling.

At the Newmarket Era printing office the members saw the paper being made up, printed and ready to mail. The Arctic Lockers, a new industry in town, or at least a new venture in refrigeration, was explored. This took the morning of one day while in the afternoon they visited the huge Office Specialty plant and the Dixon Penell Co., finishing with a last preparation of the Canadian Encyclopedia Digest, an exhaustive treatise of 12 volumes covering the field of Canadian law, and personally contributed therein the article dealing with "Distress." This is a standard reference work among Canadian lawyers today. His brilliant legal mind and keen interest in the law was perhaps somewhat inherited from his grandfather; twice removed, George Reid, prominent lawyer of Wilmington, Delaware, close confidant of George Washington, who drafted the Declaration of Independence, and was one of its co-signatories. Despite intense interest in the study of law, which he idealistically ever considered the science of human justice, the late Mr. Breuls found time for other important duties. He was an executive member of the Native Sons of Canada, Rosedale Assembly, in the early days of the founding of that organization. Outside his profession, his greatest endeavor were, however, in McKinley Lodge, L. O. L., where he was an active officer for many years, and in the Red Cross P. E. P. No. 342 of the Grand Black Chapter of B. A. The "Cross and Crown" were the moralizing principles of his life. He was a true Christian, and a loyal Britisher.

He was baptized into the Methodist church, and was actively connected with the Southern Interior Mission, and the China Mission. His benevolences were many. He was a member of the Phi Delta Phi fraternity, Osgoode Hall chapter.

In June, 1933, he was married to Miss Violet Tingley, of Toronto, who mourns his loss with other members of his family, his sisters, Miss Irene Breuls of Toronto, Mrs. Grover Morrison of Sutton, and his brothers, Stanley Breuls of Sutton, Captain Carman Breuls of Brantford and Major Harold A. C. Breuls, barrister, of Toronto, former Conservative candidate in North York.

On Friday evening, Oct. 13, funeral services were conducted by lodges of the Orange Order. On Saturday, Oct. 14, funeral services for the family and friends were conducted with the Rev. W. J. Johnston, of Eglinton United church, officiating.

Interment was made in the Bishops cemetery at Sutton, the committal service being performed by Rev. W. N. Chantler, of Toronto.

The many beautiful floral tributes, and the many hundreds from all professions and walks of life who were present attested the deep affection in which they held a friend of largesse of heart, who had a passion for justice, and a particular interest in the unfortunate and the oppressed.

His life was short, but full of labor and achievement. Better was the world for his having lived in it.

A STAY-AT-HOME MEETS A YOUNG TRAVELLER

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB

"I'm so glad I've made friends with a young Bluebird," said Very Young Chips to a young Bluebird, one fine October morning. "It's been a nice change talking to some migrating birds, rather than spending all my time with my own crowd of birds who live here all year round."

"Yes, it has been pleasant," admitted the Bluebird. "I wish we were staying here longer. I really do, but, of course, our bunch will be going farther south almost any minute now, and I'll have to follow my elders."

"It seems funny that so many Bluebirds have been coming here from farther north," said Very Young Chips. "I always thought that the Bluebirds nested all over Ontario."

"Well, of course, some do nest in the more civilized communities," answered the young friend, who seemed to be very well informed for his age. "but a great many have gone farther north of late years. Times have been too hard farther south, you know."

"How do you mean?" inquired Very Young Chips.

"Oh, the nesting sites are scarce and the Starlings and English Sparrows have such bullying ways and drive us away from them," said the Bluebird. "And, of course, they eat a lot of the food, too. We are a shy, gentle family and are easily frightened away by other bullying birds. We would rather go a little farther north and live in peace and quiet."

"There's a great big crowd of birds flying south now," said Very Young Chips. "Oh, I know who they are—my father pointed some out to me last week. They're Rusty Blackbirds. That is, some of them are. There are other Blackbirds with that flock, too. I can see quite a lot of Redwings. The Rusty Blackbirds, or Rusty Grackles, are about the same size. They aren't as big as their cousins, the Bronzed Grackles, but they have the same straw-colored eyes. They are the only two Blackbirds that have."

"You're quite well educated for a bird that stays in one place all the year round," said the young Bluebird admiringly to the Chickadee.

"Oh, I know lots more than I'm telling you," confided Very Young Chips with a pleased blush. "I learn these things from the crowd I go with."

"I suppose that streaky bird is a Rusty Blackbird?" ventured the Bluebird.

"Oh, no, that's a female Redwing," Very Young Chips told him. "The Rusties are the light-eyed ones, I said. They're black with shiny green reflections to their coats, and in the fall you can see broad edges of rust on their feathers. The rust is lighter on their heads and shoulders. The females are dark grey, with touches of rust. It's a wonder you didn't see them in the summer. They nest beyond the cultivated sections in the north country."

"Perhaps they were farther north than we were," said the Bluebird. "Anyway, we keep pretty much to ourselves, you know. We're not terribly sociable."

"Say, it looks to me as if your gang were getting ready to move on," Very Young Chips remarked suddenly.

"We've had a very nice visit here," said the Bluebird again. "I hate to say good-bye. I only hope our next stopping place is as agreeable."

"Do you like migrating?" asked the Chickadee curiously.

"No, I don't," admitted the other. "It's rather scary. I think. There are generally two or three Hawks following along behind a group of migrating small birds, you know, and they catch the laggards and the sick or injured birds. And I always get so tired before we stop and then I get terrified that a Hawk will get me if I don't keep going fast."

"My goodness, that must be awful," shuddered Very Young Chips.

"My parents kept telling us children all summer how important it was to keep fit and eat the proper food," said the Bluebird. "That is all we can do, to protect ourselves, they said—to keep well and strong. It is usually the weaklings that get killed by Hawks or that don't survive the hardships of migration. I'm really pretty strong, as a matter of fact," he boasted.

"Yes, I agree that health is very important," the Chickadee said solemnly. "Well, I guess you'd better go. I hope you have as happy a trip as possible, anyway."

"Oh, it's really very thrilling and exciting," said the Bluebird, "even if it is frightening. We are always meeting other groups of travellers. All kinds of Sparrows and Thrushes and Kinglets and Juncos and many other birds are migrating now, you know. And, of course, the country is all new to the young birds like myself. I am looking forward to wintering in the south, too. From all I hear, it is a very enjoyable and lazy life down there. Well, so long, here I go."

"Good-bye, good-bye," called back the Chickadee. "I almost wish I were going with you."

POLICE COURT 17-YEAR-OLD BOY GETS SIX MONTHS

After being convicted on a charge of breaking and entering into an Aurora service station, a 17-year-old Aurora youth was sentenced to the Ontario Reformatory for a definite period of six months and an indeterminate period not to exceed six months by Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe in police court here on Tuesday.

On the same charge a 23-year-old boy was remanded in custody one week for sentence. Defence counsel for the two boys was Lorne Lee, Aurora.

"I had just gone to bed around 1 a.m. Oct. 4, when I received a message that my place had been broken into," testified E. C. Mingay, Aurora. "When I got down to the service station I saw the two boys, Constable Dunham and Keith Davis. I found that the station had been entered by breaking a pane of glass in a back window and then the bolt had been forced up. There were some cigarettes missing from the case but these were later found by the constable. I know both of the boys."

"Do you leave a fire burning on cold nights at the service station?" asked Mr. Lee.

"Yes," answered Mr. Mingay. "How many cigarettes were taken?"

"I can't say."

"Don't the boys buy a lot of gas and oil from you?" "Yes," Frank Grainger, Aurora, who works at the service station, stated that when he left the station at 11:35 all the windows and doors were locked. "The two accused boys had bought two gallons of gas from me around eight that night but they didn't come into the service station."

"Did you find any oil cans around the next day?" asked N. L. Mathews, K.C., crown attorney. "Yes," answered Mr. Grainger. "The next day I found two quart cans of oil behind the service station. The oil was kept inside the station."

"Do you know how many packages of cigarettes were missing?" asked Mr. Lee.

"No, but I noticed next morning that the cigarettes had been pulled around in the show case and that several packages were gone."

Keith Davis, Aurora, testified that he was walking on the east side of Yonge St. around 1 a.m. when he heard a noise like men talking on the other side of the street at the service station but that when he got opposite the station the noises ceased.

"I was driving north on Yonge St. when I saw the car between the pumps and the station with the doors open so I drove in," stated Constable Fisher Dunham. "I got out of the car and saw that nothing was disturbed at the front of the station, so I went around to the back and I noticed that a pane of glass had been broken and that the window was opened a little. I then heard a noise at the front, so I ran around and could see no one, but the lock had been slid on the front door. I went around to the back again and found the two boys. I asked what they were doing and they said looking for gas as they had to go to Newmarket for their brother or some other excuse. I called to Keith Davis to get Mr. Mingay and later after I called Constable Fleury we located the cigarettes and the oil was found the next day.

"Have you ever given the boys gas at night?" asked Mr. Mathews. "Yes, on two previous nights I gave one of them gas," answered Constable Dunham. "I keep the keys for a service station and often give people gas at night. The two boys could have asked me to get gas for them if they had needed it, as I saw them twice previous to this at the Dominion store corner and in the restaurant."

County Constable Fleury corroborated the evidence of Constable Dunham about finding the cigarettes and the conversation with the two boys.

Mr. Lee stated at this point that the case should be non-suited as there was no direct evidence.

Magistrate Woodliffe disagreed and stated that there was very strong circumstantial evidence and he asked for the defence.

The 23-year-old youth testified that after he and the younger boy got home that night his mother asked them to go to Newmarket to get his older brother. "We thought we were low in gas, so we went back to Mingay's, and we saw a fire in there. We rapped on the door. We saw the man across the street. Later we both got out of the car and went around to the back of the service station where the constable found us."

"Why did you stop at the station when there was no light?" asked Mr. Mathews.

"We saw the fire and knocked, as we thought there might be someone inside," answered the older boy.

The younger boy gave the same story.

"I haven't any reasonable doubt in finding both boys guilty of the charge," stated Magistrate Woodliffe.

Mr. Mathews stated that the older boy had no record but that the younger boy had made two previous mistakes this year.

Convicted on a charge of consuming liquor in an illegal place V. C. Wetheridge, Toronto, was fined $10 and costs and a part bottle of gin found in his car was ordered confiscated.

Constable A. Shadwick, Georgina township, stated that he noticed a car being driven on the centre of the road, so he stopped it and found the bottle in the car and also that the driver admitted he had been drinking.

A. L. Follott, Barrie, speeding, 65 m.p.h. on Yonge St., 10 and costs, charge laid by Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson.

Miner Rubber Co., Toronto, speeding, 45 m.p.h. in Sharon, 55 and costs, charge laid by Constable J. Jardine, East Gwillimbury.

McNamee Construction Co., Leaside, speeding, 50 m.p.h. in Sharon, 10 and costs, charge laid by Constable Jardine.

C. E. Purdy, Toronto, speeding, 55 and costs, charge laid by Constable Jardine.

Leslie Parks, Scarborough, speeding, 55 and costs, charge laid by Constable Jardine.

Annie Barnes, Toronto, speeding, 45 m.p.h., 55 and costs, charge laid by Constable Kenneth Mount, Newmarket.

George Franks, Toronto, speeding, 55 and costs, charge laid by Constable Mount.

After pleading guilty to a charge of breaking and entering into Cameron's booth at the Jersey River and stealing a machine worth $100 which contained around $60 in coin, two Keswick boys, 20 and 22, were each remanded a week in custody for sentence.

After reserving judgment for one week the magistrate remanded W. C. Gullker, Cherrywood, in custody one week for sentence. A. J. G. Wilson, Aurora, was defence counsel.

VanDyck, Kettley, the complainant, testified last week that he was driving Mrs. Gullker, wife of the accused, back to her place of employment after she had phoned him to get her, and then stopped his car and ran up to VanDyck's car. When he saw his wife he struck VanDyck, giving him a broken nose and black eye, VanDyck stated.

Mr. Wilson stated on Tuesday that Gullker only earned $25 a month and that he paid $15 monthly in board for his two daughters. He asked that Gullker be placed on probation.

The magistrate would not agree to probation, as he said that it was a very serious assault when a man's nose was broken.

After part of the evidence was given last week on a charge of false pretences, Norman Elmer, Aurora, was convicted on the charge on Tuesday and remanded in custody one week for sentence. Harry Rose, Toronto, was defence counsel.

Archie Cousins, Aurora, testified last week that he bought a truck from Elmer in July and gave him a cheque for $400 and also another truck for $100. Elmer in selling his truck stated there was no lien on it and that it was clear of debt but a short time later he received word from a finance company that he would have to make a payment of $300 owing on the truck.

Mr. Cousins stated. Elmer had already cashed the cheque but he secured the truck he had dealt to Elmer from a parking lot in Toronto, Mr. Cousins said.

Testifying for the defence Elmer stated that he was married and had three children. "I took Mr. Cousins' word that the truck he was dealing me was in good condition and didn't see it. After I cashed the cheque I went to the finance company, and they told me

ZEPHYR FALLS FROM TREE, BREAKS WRIST

Mr. and Mrs. H. McKeown of Toronto spent Sunday with Mrs. McKeown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Timman Myers.

Mr. Chesley Lunney spent Sunday in Peterboro.

Miss Muriel Lunney spent Sunday in Lindsay with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pickering, Gerald and Shirley, spent Sunday in Newmarket with Mrs. Pickering's sister, Mrs. Wm. Dunn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Montith of Aurora spent Sunday with Mr. W. Pickering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ryndard had tea with Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison on Sunday and also called on Mr. Clayton Ryndard and his mother, Mrs. C. Ryndard.

Mrs. J. O. Bartlett and family spent Sunday in Toronto with her sisters.

The young people of the community called at the home of Mrs. Leek (nee Phoebe Kester) and presented her with a shower on Monday evening. Friends wish the young couple all happiness possible.

The dance held in the community hall on Wednesday, Oct. 11, by the "hall board" was a decided success. There will be another on Wednesday, Oct. 25. The orchestra, with Ken Ponting as leader, was well received. All hope for another good crowd on Oct. 25. The proceeds are in aid of the hall board.

Mrs. E. Profit returned home on Sunday after spending a week in Uxbridge with her niece, Mrs. England.

Walter Clark, son of Frank Clark, had the misfortune to have a bone broken in his wrist, having fallen out of a tree while visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. Tat.

Miss Florence Raham of Weston spent Sunday at her home here.

A number of the W. M. S. ladies attended W. M. S. in Mount Albert on Tuesday. A very pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent by all.

The anniversary services of the Zephyr United church will be held on Sunday, Oct. 22. Rev. Mr. Ferguson will conduct the morning service and Rev. C. E. Fockler of Keswick the evening service. Everyone is cordially invited to attend one or both of these services.

There was a lien of $425 on the truck, so I paid $100. Later I went up to Belle Ewart to see Cousins' truck and I drove it back to Aurora, but I found it in poor condition and not as represented by Cousins. I told Cousins about the truck and he took it to a garage but it was in no better condition when I got it back. I left the 1932 truck Cousins had traded me on a parking lot in Toronto and when I returned for it the truck was gone. I offered to sign a note of security with my wife for the balance of the lien on the truck but I refused to sign the contract drawn up by Mr. Wilson, Cousins' lawyer.

"Did you tell Cousins that there was a lien against the truck when you made the deal?" asked Mr. Mathews.

"I told him there was no lien on the truck when I bought it," answered Elmer.

"I am quite satisfied with the evidence of Cousins that Elmer told him there was no lien on the truck and as a result of that statement the transaction was completed," stated Magistrate Woodliffe. "I'm satisfied that Elmer intended to defraud Cousins although he may have had the intention of paying off the lien. I'm also satisfied that Elmer deliberately got the truck and money from Cousins by false pretences with intent to defraud."

Two charges of having illegal possession of liquor and keeping liquor for sale laid against Johan Imhof and Joseph Seldi, Holland Marsh, were dismissed by the magistrate. Charges of having illegal possession laid against Charles Sauner, Holland Marsh, and keeping for sale laid against Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson, Lloydton, were also dismissed.

After hearing the evidence on a charge of careless driving laid against Garnet B. Grose, Whitchurch, the case was adjourned one week for judgment.

Constable Watt stated that Grose's car went off the road and travelled 79 feet in the ditch but was not damaged. "Grose is very nervous and likely to go that way through excitement."

"You shouldn't drive a car when you are so nervous," stated Magistrate Woodliffe. "Are you willing to hand your permit in to the department?"

"I would like to keep it if I can, as I have been driving since I was 16 and I've never had any trouble," answered Grose.

FASHION SHOW GIVEN BY W. L. IS BIG SUCCESS

The fashion show held at the town hall on Friday by the Women's Institute in aid of the Red Cross society, despite the rain, was a success, and those in charge were more than pleased with the response from the citizens of the town and surrounding district. Miss Mary A. Clarke of Toronto, superintendent of Ontario Women's Institutes, opened the fair. "There has never been a time in our history when we needed more unity in national life than we do now. A fair of this kind is not only inspirational and educational but demonstrates the co-operation of rural and urban women and shows interest in both agriculture and home," said Miss Clarke. "Because it is our wish to serve our King and country to the best of our ability our fair was marked with great success."

Mrs. Dorothy Penrose Hope, president of the Newmarket Women's Institute, declared.

All the booths enjoyed excellent sales and quickly dispensed with their apples, jellies, jams, roasted chickens, baking, knitting, embroidery work, etc.

The outstanding feature of the fair was the fashion show, in which old-fashioned and modern dress was shown. Mrs. Ed. Richardson acted as commentator. Much amusement was caused by the showing of two old-time bathing suits by Mrs. N. L. Mathews and Mrs. Alex. Dunn. Wearing a bustle dress over 100 years old, Mrs. O. P. Hamilton carried a parasol, which formerly belonged to the Duchess of Strathmore, grandmother of Queen Elizabeth.

A white satin dress with red trimmings worn in 1860 at a ball tendered King Edward VII when he visited Canada as Prince of Wales was worn by Mrs. Arthur Branner. Mrs. N. L. Mathews, Mrs. Ted Neilly and Miss Marion Branner modelled old-fashioned wedding dresses. Others who participated in the modelling were Mrs. H. Hamilton, Mrs. Mathews, Mrs. E. Neilly, afternoon dresses; Mrs. E. Penrose, a Quaker costume, owned by Mrs. E. Branner's grandmother and more than 100 years old; an old-fashioned dress, Mrs. Arthur Branner. A recent bride, Mrs. Murray Stoddart, of Toronto, in ivory satin with long veil and bouquet of roses, ended the show.

Arthur Hill, now of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signallers, took the salute, and Floyd Burling of the R. S. A. bugle band played a short reveille. Mrs. Ross Evans, who served as an overseas nurse for four years and was decorated by the late King George V, was presented to the audience in her uniform. Mrs. Evans, who has again offered her services, also wore a French service medal and victory medal.

In the evening, bridge, euchre and Chinese checkers were also sponsored by the Women's Institute.

EIGHT COURSES TAUGHT AT Y. P. U. SCHOOL

The leadership training school of the United church, under the auspices of the Toronto Centre North Presbyterian Y.P.U. executive, which is being held in Trinity United church, Newmarket, on Tuesday evenings has had an average attendance of over 125 Y.P.U. members from the presbytery.

Eight courses are being taught: 1. Y.P.U. organization, with Dr. Doyle of Toronto and Rev. George Little of Toronto, as leaders; 2. Christian fellowship, Miss Margaret Fockler of Keswick; 3. Christian missions, Rev. Hugh Shannon of Queensville; 4. Christian citizenship, Rev. W. J. Burton of Kettley; 5. Christian culture, Miss Marian Burkholder of Queensville; 6. Bible study, Dr. E. J. Thompson of Aurora; 7. recreation, Marvin Hunter of Lasky; 8. Sunday-school work, Miss Wilson of Toronto.

Very inspiring worship services have been given by local unions. On Sept. 26 Sutton Y.P.U. were in charge. On the second night, Wesley Y.P.U. used as their theme, "Friendship," while on Oct. 10, Potlodgeville Y.P.U. used, "Peace," as their theme. This past week, wick; 3. Christian missions, Rev. "Nearer, My God to Thee," as their theme.

On Tuesday, Oct. 24, the fellowship group, led by Miss Margaret Fockler, will lead the worship.

On Tuesday, Oct. 10, Miss Nellie Lewis of Toronto, recreation leader, led the recreation group in their study and led a play party for the whole group for part of the evening's program. On Tuesday night, Miss Dorothy Fox of Aurora, who is going to China in the near future as a missionary, was present and spoke at the meeting. Miss Vera Hunter, on behalf of the presbytery, presented Miss Fox with a purse of money.

One more study night remains, Tuesday, Oct. 24, with the closing night on Friday, Oct. 27. Rev. Wesley Hunnisset and his orchestra from the Fred Victor mission will be present.

All young people are asked to bring a small donation of canned fruit or vegetables to pack a barrel for the mission.

The great success of the school is due to the work of the directors of the school, Miss Nora McIntosh, leadership training convener, and Rev. R. R. McMath as dean.

TO THE EDITOR

EXPLAINS HIS CLAIM AGAINST TOWNSHIP

Editor, The Era: In order to make it clear to the people of North Gwillimbury regarding the lawsuit against the township council, I desire to make an explanation as to the taking down of the sign by Police Morton on a Sunday night, and the disappearance of same in a few hours time.

Having received consent of the owner of a property at the O'Connor corner at Varney road to place an advertising sign on his property at Hollywood Lodge sign there.

In 1937 the road superintendent department placed a checker-board sign, not exactly in the centre of the road, but in front of the Hollywood Lodge sign, cutting off 18 inches of the wording; as this checker-board was placed next to the fence across a wide steep ditch, and in order not to have too many signs showing, I took my sign down and tacked it on the lower portion of the checker-board, but not interfering with the squares on the blocked board.

The Hollywood Lodge sign, being painted white, would help to improve the vision from the danger at night of any person going into the ditch.

At the nomination meeting last November I stated from the platform that if I was elected I would use my influence to keep liquor out of the community hall, and that if our police could not do so we would get another policeman. Apparently Police Morton took offence at this, because the next morning after the election the sign was taken down. I noticed the sign up again, this morning some kids had taken it down. The sign was then taken off a second time, and finally a third time. On inquiring, in the neighborhood I was surprised when informed that Police Morton had taken it down. I immediately went to his house and asked Police Morton who instructed him to take the sign down and he informed me that it was none of my business.

The next morning I telephoned Reeve Morton and asked him if he instructed the police to take the sign down and he assured me that he did not know anything about it. I then made an appointment with the reeve and two prominent men, friends and supporters of his, to come up and go over the situation with me.

In the presence of these two gentlemen Reeve Morton gave me consent to place the sign with the understanding that it could be left there until the council met and decided otherwise.

The sign remained on the checker-board for six months after that. I am informed that Police Morton and our township lawyer between them prepared and made out "Rules and Regulations" for the council to pass a by-law to cover same. This irregular by-law was passed in council, irregular because it did not have a mover or seconder.

The by-law was not advertised, and I did not receive any notice whatsoever from the council or council officials that the sign was to be taken down. The by-law instructed the road superintendent to take charge of road advertising signs.

The next day after the sign was taken down I called on my neighbor, Carson Pollock, to inquire about the sign and he promised to have the person who took the sign down bring it to me that day. As I did not receive the sign I inquired of him who took it down and I asked him if it was Police Morton and he said it was, but he supposed he would have to take the blame, but they were unable to find the sign.

I then inquired of Police Morton where the sign was, and he stated he did not know where it was. I informed him that I would hold the township council responsible for the value of the sign, and I quoted $18.

Since then in the presence of the county police I explained to Police Morton that it would save a lot of talk and help the council out if he would bring the sign back. He said he did not know where the sign was but he had an idea that perhaps some kids carried it away back some place in the field. I asked him if he ever looked for it and he replied that he had not.

Police Morton claims that the sign was taken down and left on the ground beside the checker-board. The road superintendent says it was put over the fence and placed back in the corner of the fence line.

Now I ask the people of North Gwillimbury do you think it possible that in the five hours of the early morning could a sign walk or fly away? Would it not have been a proper gesture on the part of the road superintendent, I being his neighbor, or of Police Morton to have come to me, as I am one who helps pay their salaries, before this act was committed, to inform me that it was the wish of the council that the sign was to come down and ask me whether I would take care of it? But no request ever came to me from the council or township employees.

Without threatening the council I have tried to have them change the blunder to the two officials who were instrumental in taking the sign down or make the council responsible for same.

The council, knowing all the circumstances, have been given the opportunity of settling the claim, by my sharing half the costs of the sign, but have refused to recognize the claim in an honorable way. Therefore, there is nothing left for me to do but sue the council.

NEWLYWEDS TO LIVE IN BOURLAMAQUE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Zidar of Bourlamaque, P. Q., was the scene of a very happy event on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 23, when Miss Mildred Irene Johnson, of Bourlamaque, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Queensville, became the bride of the elder son, Louis Frank Zidar, Jr.

Rev. Donald MacLeod, minister of the Presbyterian church, performed the marriage ceremony, which was witnessed by about 20 guests, intimate friends of the popular young couple.

The bride looked charming in her wedding gown of pale blue sheer with white net veil, and bridal wreath, carrying a bouquet of red roses. The bride came in on the arm of the groom's father.

Mrs. Alice Crabbe was bridesmaid, wearing a gown of rust crepe, and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Donald E. Cameron of Bourlamaque.

Mrs. L. F. Zidar, Sr., mother of the groom, received the guests, wearing a becoming gown of navy blue sheer. Immediately following the ceremony the wedding party journeyed to the private dining-room of the Hotel Coulson, where the marriage feast was sumptuously spread, and enjoyably partaken of.

Toasts to the young couple were proposed by the groomsmen, Mr. Donald Cameron, Mr. Bruce Moore and by Rev. Donald MacLeod, and suitably responded to by the groom and by his father, Mr. Louis Zidar, Sr.

Following the wedding dinner, the bride and groom and guests adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zidar, Sr., to further enjoy the happy fellowship.

The young couple will take up residence in Bourlamaque.

—Mr. and Mrs. Pearcey Thomas (nee Lillian Hart) of Oba are spending a week with their parents in town. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are on a month's holiday and have just returned from a trip to the western coast, San Francisco and other points.

—A number of the young people held a house party at Hart Lodge, Minden, over the weekend, including Misses Jean Smith, Margaret and Frances Baines and Messrs. George and Kenneth Johns and James Seldon.

—Dr. J. C. R. Edwards has returned home after a week's holiday in Haliburton.

—Mrs. Harold Mann and Carol spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Mann's mother, Mrs. Arthur Winn.

—Rev. Dr. W. D. Muckle, who has been on holidays the past three weeks, is expected home tomorrow.

Don't forget the dance on Friday Oct. 27, in Newmarket high school, under the Women's Hospital Aid. The splendid music of Art West's orchestra will make a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

According to the reports of my man Friday, Eddie Bovair, better known as the Tannery Tiger, has been training faithfully and predicts that there is liable to be a frost in Regina this evening.

There has seldom been a better crowd-pleaser in this neck of the woods than Bovair and yours truly really believes that this bout will be worth the price of admission alone.

No doubt the O'Connor-Rowlands affair will be the sparkler on the card, as I understand Rowlands is every bit as good as Raven and I certainly do not need to boost him.

As soon as Raven's eye has healed properly I believe there will be a return bout, with O'Connor providing the opposition.

Matchmaker Spillette certainly handed Tommy Burke a plum when he signed him to meet Harry Dodge, the heavy-punching lad who was edged out of the decision by Lorne Ferguson in the last show.

This fight I pick as the best bout of the night regardless of the main bout, as Burke is going to have to do plenty of leading to grab the head and watch Dodge's dynamite at the same time, and both hands are loaded to the gunwales with this explosive.

The rest of the card is as good a supporting cast as one could find in any sanctioned program and should provide the crowd with plenty of action.

Congrats to the Pickering College footballers on their runaway victory at Port Hope last Saturday. They must have had plenty on the pigskin to give T. C. S. such a trouncing.

This is the week that the pro-puck-chasers report and have some fun for the next two weeks getting out the summer kinks, but work is work these days and I suppose it's better than the bread-line, bruises and all.

One happy account of last Saturday's football encounters told us that the Western University Mustangs had finally broken the Blue Jay streak of seven years standing and trounced the Varsity Blues to the tune of 23-5.

Just another groom for Houghton but still we remember the story of the seven lean years, so watch out for the Mustangs for the next seven falls.

Along the grapevine . . . The snowstorm the other day didn't bother this grapevine . . . We hear pretty straight that the burg will have a junior puck squad this coming freeze (because it is going to freeze) . . . What series we will be entered in I don't know but we will be in there . . . It certainly will be a friendly groom if Aurora and Richmond Hill are in it here . . . Just like old times, fresh fruit and all . . . N. H. 8. started football practice this week about a month too late . . . You had the track meet last in the spring, so that the fall could be devoted to football . . . I heard that once not so very long ago N. H. 8. officials suggested the meet be changed to the spring but met with plenty of opposition . . . Just another example of that old saw, N. H. 8. playing that rough game, when all the other schools are so lady-like . . . Enough is certainly enough. Yours sportingly.

Narrow Escape
"You didn't carry out your plans to elope?"
"No. I found father was planning to move, and I didn't know where we'd find him when we got back."

LEARN HOW TO MAKE OWN GLOVES

The agricultural representative's office board room was the scene of great activity Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday when the local leaders' training school of the senior Women's Institute was conducted for a leather glove making project.

Miss Helen Hulet of Norwich was in charge of the school. She is a graduate of MacDonald Hall, Guelph.

In all, there were 12 Institutes represented: Schomberg, Mrs. Fred Hunter; Kettleby, Mrs. J. T. Jones; Snowball, Mrs. E. S. Reddick; Oak Ridge, Mrs. Floyd Watson; Mount Albert, Miss E. Hayes; Sharon, Mrs. E. Prest; Sharon Junior, Miss Lois Goodwin; Aurora, Miss B. Charles; Vandonor, Mrs. Jas. Hennessy; Newmarket, Mrs. N. L. Mathews; Gormley, Miss Helen Evans; Pine Orchard, Miss Frances Stuckwood.

Each leader finished a beautiful pair of gloves. Many types and colors of leather were used, including white duckskin, black goatskin, beige pigskin, chambray, grey suede.

Each leader is now qualified to return to her Institute and instruct in the art of glove-making.

SAYS PLAQUE SHOWS LIVING MAN KILLED

"How can we keep a proper record of the Newmarket men who are enlisting?" asked Reeve F. A. Landy at a town council meeting on Monday evening.

"After the last war there was a lot of confusion and some didn't receive the recognition to which they were entitled," said Mr. Landy.

"Make an announcement in the press," said the mayor, Dr. J. J. Boyd.

"The veterans are keeping a record," said Councillor Wm. Dixon. "We should also keep a record. There is one plaque in this town with the name of a particular man as killed in action. He was living in the city of London two years ago."

N. L. Mathews, K. C., clerk and solicitor, suggested that the town have forms printed to be filled out by each man enlisting.

"We can ask the government to give us names," said Councillor A. D. Evans.

"We should get the voluntary list first, and check it with the government later," said Mayor Boyd, naming a committee of Councillors Dixon and Evans, two war veterans, with the clerk, to act in the matter.

Make Big Effort To Arouse Interest In Armistice Day

MAYOR SAYS INTEREST IN ARMISTICE MUST NOT BE ALLOWED TO FLAG

At a special meeting, with representatives present from the council, the Ministerial Association and the Red Cross, Aurora War Veterans last Friday formed plans for the holding of a monster memorial service on Armistice day.

Addressing the meeting Mayor J. M. Walton urged that this year special effort be made to make this annual pilgrimage to the cenotaph more impressive than ever.

"The public must be thoroughly aroused this year," said the mayor. "For several years past this occasion has seen fewer members attending and less public attention given. We must commemorate this wonderful occasion, in view of our participation in the war, in a more fitting manner this year."

President John Maaten threw the meeting open to general discussion, and after long debate it was finally decided that the service should be held on Saturday morning, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. at the cenotaph, weather permitting.

If unsuitable weather should occur the service will be held in the arena.

"We want the crowd at the cenotaph that day if possible," said L. C. Lee in moving the time and place for the service. "No other place can provide the proper

HOLD SCAVENGER HUNT

The regular meeting of Trinity A. Y. P. A. held Monday took the form of a scavenger hunt throughout town. Five teams under the captaincy of David Judd, Art Bunn, Evelyn Heard, Gordon French and Mae Anderson competed. The group led by Art Bunn were successful in winning first prize.

atmosphere, or indicate properly the true significance of the day."

The general committee of veterans and citizens to arrange complete details is as follows: John Maaten, John Hudson, Arthur Sayers, Clifford Corbett, W. H. Taylor, C. E. Lundy, Mrs. C. R. Boulding and Mrs. H. J. Charles.

Invitations have been sent to many prominent personages including Lieutenant-Governor Matthews. Local lodges, the various public bodies, public and high school pupils, as well as all veterans in North York will be asked to attend.

A massed choir will provide special music while the bugle band sponsored by the York County Veterans Association, the Aurora Boys' band and the Aurora Citizens' band are expected to take part.

Poppy Day will this year be held on Nov. 11 and the Red Cross, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gordon Baldwin, will supervise the tagging for the veterans.

GAVEL PASSED ALONG BY ORANGEMEN

Under the leadership of Worshipful Master Ewart Pinder, members and officers of L. O. L. 643 visited Runnymede lodge 1997 last Wednesday and presented the travelling Orange gavel, which has remained in the care of United Empire lodge for the past month, to the Runnymede brethren. Worshipful Brother Wm. McGirr performed the honors for the local lodge.

Following the presentation a degree team from the Toronto lodge under the guidance of Worshipful Brother E. J. Binklow conferred the blue degree upon Brother Howard J. Morton. A buffet luncheon, motion pictures of the royal visit and a short musical program were enjoyed after the close of regular proceedings. Rt. Worshipful Bro. C. M. Carrie, P. G. M. of Ontario West, also gave a most interesting address.

Members from the local lodge in attendance included: Rt. Wor. Bro. W. H. Taylor, Wor. Bros. J. Collins, E. Pinder, A. Long, N. Hurman, L. C. Lee, J. A. Hudson, Wm. McGirr, Wm. Taylor and A. N. Fisher, and Bros. T. C. Fice, H. J. Morton, A. Scott, Geo. Langstaff, F. Morris, M. Rank, A. Fleury.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, a degree team from the Aurora lodge will journey to Islington lodge 2489 for the purpose of conferring the royal arch degree.

LITERARY HONORS KEENLY CONTESTED

The annual elections of the Aurora high school literary society were held on Friday. Practically every office was keenly contested, and the affair was held in regular election style. The following officers were elected for 1939-40:

Honorary pres., Miss May Douglas; pres., Bill Walker; vice-pres., Dudley Wilcox; sec., Mary Griffith; treas., Christina Kirkwood.

Councillors: farm V, Jean Umehara and Geo. Armstrong; form IV, Beth McDonald and David Boyd; grade IX, Margaret Riddell and Raymond Cook; grade X, Nora Calhoun and Craig McKenzie; grade 9A, Lillian Davis and Walter Sawchuck; grade 9B, Marlon Cain and Geo. Stone.

Following the announcements of the returns from the poll, a short dance was held in the auditorium.

COURSE IN FIRST AID IS OFFERED

A St. John's ambulance first aid course will be held if a sufficient number of ladies are interested. Names should be registered with Mrs. George Walker, 11 Catherine Ave., before Oct. 26.

The course will be conducted by local doctors and certificates of the St. John's Ambulance Association will be awarded at the conclusion of the course. Details will be arranged by the Aurora Women's Institute. A small fee will be charged to cover expenses.

JOHN HUGHEY WINS DR. McDONALD'S MEMORIAL TROPHY

In the tenth running of the annual cross-country run for the Memorial trophy, held by Aurora high school on Friday, John Hughey galloped home victor over the wind and rain-swept five-mile course in the excellent time of 32 minutes and 6 seconds. Close on Hughey's heel came his brother, Peter Hughey, and Raymond Lloyd.

In 1929 Dr. Bruce McDonald, then principal of St. Andrew's College, donated the beautiful Memorial trophy in memory of the 11 boys from the local school killed in action in the last war.

Inscribed on the trophy are the words in Latin, "Qui sanguine nostrum nomen in astra ferunt," or literally translated, "Those who with their life blood carried their names to the heavens."

Hughey will hold the trophy for a year and will receive a special medal. By an unwritten law of the school winner may not compete again for the trophy, and so Howard Polliott, who won the trophy last year, although back at school this year, did not enter. In all, some 60 boys entered the race and 55 of them completed the gruelling course.

Form winners will each receive a medal, while the respective runners-up will receive school

DOWN THE CENTRE

Happy Hunting, Charley

This week Charley Rowntree, coach of last year's championship Aurora hockey team, severed his connection with the local club. The returned Rowntree will this year guide the destinies of the newly-formed Newmarket Redmen, who will return to the hockey wars in the junior C series.

For the past four years Charley has been in charge of the coaching duties in the junior series and has given wholeheartedly of his time and ability for the local ice squads. His record is one that entitles him to respect in the best coaching circles.

In his first two years with the club, the fight was on in Junior B. Toronto Dukes eliminated Aurora in the group finals in his initial venture, while the following year saw the team go down to defeat at the hands of Barrie Colts after winning the local group B title.

Next year saw him place the Aurorans in the newly-created C series against Orangeville in the finals, the Dufferin county speedsters taking the consolation in two games out of three. Last year's march to the title is now a matter of hockey history and elvish pride. Throughout all this period of time the Woodbridge boy has resided at his business headquarters in the canal town.

Rowntree could not be classed as a master tactician or hockey strategist, but he could and did unearth promising players and mould them into a speedy, battling outfit. His forte was his ability to handle "teen age boys and keep harmony among the players. Team play superseded personal perfection, and club officials always found him to give his best, with any expected remuneration a secondary consideration. The team came first at all times with Charley!

Newmarket is to be congratulated on securing his services. Local officials have no complaint and only the kindest feelings towards him. That feeling, we know personally, is mutual and we'll wager there'll be more than once when Charley feels a tug on the collar of the Aurorans march on without him for better or worse. All Aurora fans join in wishing him happy hunting in his new surroundings.

The Old Order Changeth

The newly elected hockey executive appears to have a real problem on their hands with no many runners floating around as to where certain players will play this year and what teams will be entered in the local group, and what series they will play in.

It is always difficult to follow in the wake of a championship season, as anyone in Newmarket can testify, and this coupled with the withdrawal from office of many tried and true master minds seems to further complicate matters. Too much credit cannot be paid the retiring executive. They kept an objective in mind and, despite all difficulties met, reached that objective.

This meant personal and financial sacrifices and all they received was the satisfaction of seeing a job done well. In every community there are those who do nothing to criticize others and do nothing themselves. The old executive have answered these persons and completely silenced them, each and everyone.

We believe that the new executive will leave no stone unturned to see that this year's team lives up to standard. They have been promised full support by their predecessors and we personally believe they will be as good as their word. With new blood in the club and the benefit of experience at hand, to be received as needed, there is no cause for the fans to be downhearted about the team's prospects. November first marks the time when players are definitely tied down as to where they'll play this season, and until that time it is only to be expected that things will be on the quiet. We too can play a waiting game.

Sic Transit

It doesn't seem so many years ago since lacrosse and baseball flourished in these parts. Remember when there were hardball teams in Willowdale, Richmond Hill, Aurora, Newmarket, Bradford, Sutton and Stouffville, and lacrosse teams in the same centres? Well, time and inability to raise funds have done their work.

This year Stouffville was the lone baseball entry and Sutton scrambled together a junior B lacrosse team. Both entries reached inglorious ends. Sutton was forced to meet a St. Catharines team and went down on 30 goals on the round. Stouffville, after defeating Ivy, were slugged under by the powerful Galt Pickards in straight games.

In fairness to both teams, it should be pointed out that they were handicapped financially and did not have sufficient local competition. The creation of B and C series in both baseball and lacrosse has been a step in the right direction but we still believe the powers-that-be do not use good judgment in allowing entries to be made in these series from big centres, regardless of what rules they devise to try and equalize things. Equalization just doesn't seem to exist.

It is ridiculous for places the size of the two York county villages to be sent up against the representatives from the Garden City and banks of the Grand. Stouffville was originally supposed to play in C but somehow or other wound up in B company. Why they were not scheduled to play their neighbors from Sunderland seems hard to understand. Sunderland too, playing in higher company.

MOTHER AND SON ARE LODGE HEADS

With district officers filling the chairs and A. M. Walton of Agincourt, D.D.G.M., and Sister Olive Walker of Aurora, D.D. president, in charge, the newly-elected officers of Elma Rebekah Lodge, and Aurora No. 148, I.O.O.F., will be installed in office this evening at the local I.O.O.F. hall at a joint meeting.

Mother and son will again fill the respective head chairs this year with Sister Alma Andrews and O. L. Andrews being returned to head the local lodges.

Elected officers for Alma Rebekah Lodge include: N. G. Sister Alma Andrews; V. G. Sister Addie Eade; rec. sec., Sister Madeline Snigle; fin. sec., Sister Emma Davis; treas., Sister Hannah Atkinson.

NURSE SENT TO CHINA MISSION

IS FIRST MISSIONARY SENT OUT BY DISTRICT IN 40 YEARS

Church history was made at Aurora United church at the morning service on Sunday, Oct. 15, when Miss Dorothy Fox, R. N., received her commission, by the laying on of hands by the Rev. A. P. Addison and the Rev. E. J. Thompson, as a missionary to Chengtu, west China, from the Toronto conference of the United church.

Miss Fox is the third generation of her family to serve the church. Over 60 years ago her grandfather, Rev. Thos. Fox, was a "saddleback preacher" throughout Peel and York counties, residing at King City, and moving to Aurora on his retirement. Her father, the late Rev. Wesley Fox, received his education at Aurora high school and in later years returned to Aurora to take charge of the Temperance four-Wesley church circuit. Dorothy Fox, like her father, received her education and early church training here, but moved away with her family some 16 years ago. When she chose to enter the missionary field she expressed the desire to be presented for dedication at her home church.

Mrs. G. L. Lemon of Toronto, of the Woman's Missionary Society board, presented her for dedication to the officiating pastors, saying, "You are going to a great work in China. The calling is both ours and yours. We shall not cease to uphold you." She then presented Miss Fox with a copy of the Bible.

Rev. A. P. Addison, son of a former pastor of the church, representing the Toronto conference, and the present pastor, Rev. E. J. Thompson, received Miss Fox for dedication. Mr. Addison commented on the fact that he too had received his early religious training in Aurora.

"I feel particularly proud to act at this ceremony, for Rev. Wesley Fox and I attended high school and university together and were both ordained the same year. Miss Fox will carry on worthily the great family heritage of devotion and self-sacrifice. She will have a great field for her work. She goes as an ambassador of peace to a war-torn country, which has been greatly sinned against."

Dr. E. J. Thompson, who preached the sermon, chose as his subject, "The Progress of Love." "Let us remember," he said, "that it is man's duty that has brought strain and stress on every hand. We must turn to God to lend us out of chaos."

He counselled Miss Fox to remain steadfast despite times of hardship and loneliness. "You will carry with you always, I am sure, the memory and assurance that we will not forsake you or your work."

Miss Fox is the first person to be commissioned in Aurora United church, and it is over 40 years ago since Rev. Daniel Norman left this district, then in the Bradford conference, for missionary work in Japan. She will sail from Vancouver on Nov. 11.

On Saturday evening over 30 former schoolmates of Miss Fox's met at the home of Mrs. Lambert Willson for a farewell tea in her honor. Miss Helen Hoyton, on behalf of the gathering, presented Miss Fox with a travelling kit and a unique collection of snapshots, including many of yesteryear, and recent snaps of the various friends assembled.

YORK MAN WINS

The Fleury-Bissell trophy for jointer playing with horses at the International Plowing Match held at Brackville was won this year by a York county representative, Herbert Jarvis, of Milliken, W. A. Johnston, plant superintendent, made the presentation on behalf of the local firm.

"APPLE WOMAN" WINS FOR BEST COSTUME

On Monday evening members of the In-A-Much club gathered at the home of Mrs. Ewart Pinder for their annual Halloween party. Following the regular business, a games fitting the occasion took place and awards were made for the best Halloween costumes worn by the club members, who all attended in costume.

Mrs. A. A. Cook, attired as an apple woman, was awarded first prize, while the hostess, Mrs. Pinder, in bridal costume, won the award for the most original costume.

Plans were laid to raise funds for the Red Cross at the next regular meeting to be held on Monday, Nov. 30, at the home of Mrs. Cooke, Harrison Ave.

Ed. Anderson; treas., Sam Chapman.

On Tuesday visitors were present at the regular lodge meeting of the I.O.O.F. from Willowdale and Newmarket, while one candidate was initiated.

This evening district officers accompany both officiating dignitaries, and visitors are expected from all parts of York county. Sister Ida Mills, of Barrie, assembly warden, will be one of the prominent visitors.

Town's Only Firebug Belonged To Brigade

TOWN'S EQUIPMENT ALL THAT CAN BE AFFORDED NOW, SAYS CHIEF

THEY DON'T GET RICH

For Fire Prevention Week The Era analyzed local fire conditions with Chief Frank Rowe. Frank, more popularly known as "Dorky," has been a member of the Aurora brigade continuously for the past 33 years and has slowly but surely climbed the ladder to the top of the brigade.

He has served under no less than five fire chiefs, namely Harry Strasser, long since departed from Aurora, the late Tom Brodie, Henry "Tim" Holder, Richard Tustian and Fred Browning. He was lieutenant four years, deputy-chief 13 years, acting-chief four years, and last year finally made chief to succeed Fred Browning, suffering from a long illness.

Last year the brigade answered 23 calls locally, and the total fire loss was $735, about one-half of this amount being caused by one fire alone.

"Chimney fires are our biggest problem," said Mr. Rowe. "People will neglect year by year to see that chimneys are cleaned and properly repaired. A few dollars spent annually would save the home-owner, the firemen and the taxpayers needless expense and inconvenience. I would say defective wiring and spontaneous combustion are the next most serious problems we have to contend with."

Queried as to whether or not they ever encountered incendiaryism the Fire Chief laughed. "No," he said, "that just doesn't happen here. I only remember one case of that. In 1910 we had a firebug in town who was a member of the force. He certainly caused a good many small fires and of course was blamed for every one that broke out. He was advised to leave town in a hurry and you should have seen how fast he took the advice," said Mr. Rowe.

The brigade consists of 24 men but there are only 23 on duty now, as one member has enlisted. The scale of pay is as follows: Attendance at practice 25 cents, false alarm 40 cents, and a real fire grosses each fireman 90 cents.

"The day is approaching, however, when they'll be forced to have at least two or three permanent firemen on duty," the chief said. "It would be a splendid thing, but, of course, the town would probably have difficulty raising the additional money. We carry on under existing conditions but the grant of $300, divided among the whole force, isn't very much for the

MAYOR STILL SAYS "NO SPEED-TRAP"

The Police report is still under consideration by Mayor J. M. Walton, but His Worship told The Era on Wednesday that a statement will be issued shortly. "Pressure of business has delayed our statement and we are referring several points to the attorney-general for further consideration," said the mayor. "I may say the whole report is much more favorable to the town than reported in the Toronto press."

"I feel, however, that proper consideration has not been given certain matters and that the commissioner has erred in some respects. I would point out that our signs still remain as they were previous to the investigation and we have not been ordered to change them."

"I stand by my former statements that there is no speed-trap here. Traffic conditions in the centre of the town are still bad. Our citizens are forced to watch their step to avoid being hit by speeding motorists. Townspeople can be assured the matter is being handled carefully."

SAY SERVICE STATIONS CAN'T CHANGE BRAND

Chief Justice Rose in weekly court on Thursday last at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, adjourned until Oct. 26 four supreme court actions involving residents of this district. The causes of action respectively concerned four service station proprietors, namely, W. L. Pollitt, of Kettleby, Robert S. Watson, of Holland Landing, G. P. Walsh, of Oakridge, and J. R. Marrow, of Bond Lake. The plaintiff in the first three instances was the McColl-Fontenno Oil Company Ltd., and in the case of Marrow, the Canadian Oil Companies Ltd.

Some weeks ago the above-named service station proprietors changed the brand of gas they were supplying the public to that of another company. They claimed they owned their own service stations and were entitled to do this. The respective companies, on the other hand, maintained the present defendants had entered into certain contractual obligations with them, and so had no right to change the brand of gas.

On Oct. 2 the gasoline companies were successful in obtaining interim injunctions restraining the defendants from selling any other brand of gas than that previously supplied, namely, the gas of the plaintiff companies. These injunctions will remain in force at least until Oct. 21.

J. M. Ballon, R. C. of Toronto, appeared for all four defendants, while Leslie Blackwell appeared for McColl-Fontenno and J. Mid-dleton for Canadian Oil.

SCHOMBERG W. I. INTRODUCES SUBJECT OF WAR WORK

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Skitch and Miss Marian Skitch were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Stonehouse and Mr. and Mrs. H. Brydon, last week. Mrs. M. Borden of Aurora is visiting friends in town and also attended the 50th anniversary celebration of the Anglican Woman's Auxiliary last Tuesday.

Mrs. N. Wauchope, who underwent a major operation last week in St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, is doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. Harry Kay of the Royal Air Force, stationed at Trenton, was home on leave last week for a few days.

Mr. Claude Burns is a patient in Christie St. hospital. Friends hope he will be able to be around again shortly.

The Women's Institute met on Thursday afternoon last week with Mrs. E. J. Pearson in charge. The subject of war work was introduced and it was decided to seek the co-operation of the churches. The roll call was answered by giving "An improvement I have made in my kitchen."

Current events were given by Mrs. Schoultz and an article was read by Mrs. F. Hunter on "Making the best of people's faults."

The attendance was small and it is hoped that it will be improved next month. The hostesses, Mrs. E. Smith and Mrs. Schoultz, served refreshments.

EVERSLEY MARKS 92 YEARS, STILL ATTENDS CHURCH

Mrs. Ernest Barker and her friend, Mrs. Helen Gordon Osborne, of St. Catharines, niece of the late Lady Pellatt, spent an afternoon last week at "Scots Wha Hae," and enjoyed picking a tree of Wagner apples.

Potatoes are large this year. Before the correspondent, as she writes, is a one pound tuber shaped like the head of a pig. There is the long mouth, decidedly strong-looking snout, eyes and ears. It is a Dooley, so is as Irish as Paddy's pig.

Miss Annie Ferguson took the day off on Sunday to attend anniversary services at Ella, the church

Oct. 12.—All are enjoying this beautiful autumn weather. After a very busy summer folks can relax a little to admire the wonderful coloring of the leaves, and all the beauties of nature, before it settles down to sleep for the winter.

Farmers are busy with potatoes, apples, fall grains and threshing before the frost comes and stops all their activities until spring again.

Mr. Phoenix has been working in Toronto during the past few weeks.

Mr. Needler is busily engaged finishing up on his present farm and preparing his land on his new farm for next year.

Mr. Marshall, who has been in Toronto for treatment at the General Hospital clinic, is at home again and feeling fine.

The People's Memorial church is still well attended. Sunday-school was held at 10 a.m. with an attendance of about 40 and the church service at 7 p.m. last Sunday, Oct. 8. Mr. Rowan preached from the gospel of John. His lesson was that God does not condemn the sinner, but the hypocrite, and advised that Christians should not concern themselves about other people's faults; until they have gotten rid of their own.

The Willing Workers meet each Saturday afternoon and Young People's service is held on Friday at 8 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Pottageville

The Y. P. U. held its meeting last Wednesday with a fair attendance. The scripture lesson was read by Harold Fennell. A reading was given by Mrs. Ed. Houghton and a duet, "Good Night and Good Morning," was sung by Rida Houghton and Howard Paton, accompanied by Mr. Ed. Houghton on the piano. A story was read by the president, Miss V. Allen, entitled "Johnnie Blueboots." The meeting closed with the benediction.

WHITCHURCH REFUSE $50 GRANT BUT PAY $40 FOR SERVICES

Declaring that he had laid out $135 and a great deal of time, Roy Andrew appeared before Whitchurch council on Saturday, requesting a grant of at least $50, which would be used to purchase additional equipment for the new fire truck now stationed at Ballantrae.

Mr. Andrew said his outfit had given a good account of itself only the day before on its first call to a fire, which occurred on the seventh concession. He arrived on the scene within a few minutes of receiving the call. There was no water, but his 300-gallon supply enabled him to save a small building or two. Ladder, coats and boots are needed, as well as better mechanical equipment.

"I think we should pay for service rendered rather than make a grant," said Reeve Toole, who saw certain complications in such a policy. He pointed out that one section now paid for their own fires and could not reasonably be called on to contribute a grant to another section of the township. It was suggested that Ballantrae might set up a similar fire area to that served by Aurora. The Reeve made it plain that he was willing to pay for service rendered just as they had done in the past and would do at this meeting for two fires attended by the Unionville brigade.

A sum of $40 was accordingly voted Mr. Andrew, which is the same as that paid Unionville. The vote was unanimous in favor of this amount.

Saturday proved a regular field day for salesmen, all with the theme song about higher prices next year, which are sure to come. Culverts and snow fencing orders were sought. Council told the agents they would carefully canvass the situation, and would buy for next year when the requirements were known.

Road accounts were the smallest passed at any meeting this year, which was attributed to the work of the new grader, which is proving a real money-saver. The accounts receiving the assent of council for road work were: R. B. Brown, general, $2.01; General Supply Co., $90.94; Floyd Preston, operating grader one month, $73.85; F. Ball, weeds, $2; Jack Sheridan, weeds, $6; H. Widdifield, supt., $111; Fred Woodhouse, weeds, $13; Div. 6, $6.35; Div. 23, $6.50; Div. 16, $5.70; Div. 1, $16.60.

On resolution submitted by Councillors Kidd and Wells, $25 was granted the North York Plowmen's Association.

Reeve E. Toole presided over the meeting, all members being present, Deputy-Reeve Cook, Councillors Leary, Kidd and Wells.

General accounts were noticeably small, and included, Unionville Fire Brigade, 2 fires, $80; Ontario Hospital, Woodstock, $46; Geo. Hunt, valuing sheep, $1.50; York county, hospitalization, $109.75.

QUEENSVILLE
HOT FOWL SUPPER IS TO BE HELD NOV. 7

Queensville United church, this November, is celebrating its golden jubilee with special anniversary services on Sundays, Nov. 5 and 12.
The annual hot fowl supper will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 7.

At present, the church is undergoing extensive renovation, but will be completed in time for the re-opening on Sunday, Nov. 5.

On Sunday, Nov. 5, services will be held at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.,
with Rev. W. E. Wilson of Toronto
the guest minister in the morning,
and Rev. H. F. Partridge of Colborne, in the evening. The local choir will furnish special music.

On Sunday, Nov. 12, services will be held at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.,
with Rev. C. E. Fockler of Keswick
the guest minister in the morning and Rev. J. D. Parks of Toronto in the evening. The Baker Hill ladies' choir, gold medallists, will sing at the evening service.

Rev. J. D. Parks is an outstanding minister and it has been arranged for the anniversary service in the evening of Nov. 12 to be in the form of a young people's rally.

Surrounding unions are being invited. Everyone is welcome.

Following the service, a fellowship hour will be held in the Sunday-school rooms. You are invited to come and join in this 50th anniversary.

Queensville United church annual hot fowl supper will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 7. Supper will be served from 5 until all are served.

Following the supper an excellent program will be given, featuring the "Kenwood Troubadours."
While the supper is being served a singing and stunts will be conducted by Mrs. Roy Staples, of Toronto.

The Queensville branch of the Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Hugh Shannon on Wednesday, Oct. 25, at 2:30 p.m.
The motto for the month is "All labor is noble and holy."

The roll call will be answered by "What I am thankful for." The program committee is Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. G. Pearson and Mrs. E.
Norris.

A paper on "Temperance" will be given by Mrs. Elmer Starr.

The lunch committee is Mrs. J.
L. Smith, Mrs. R. Putnam, Mrs. J.
T. Cowleson and Mrs. J. Denne.
All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Miss F. L. Wright returned to the city on Saturday after conducting for a week the Institute class of ladies on the art of rug-making,
which was very profitable to all taking part.

this week to take up residence in Burk's Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jardine have moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson.

Mrs. Legge of Toronto is visiting this week at the Pearson home.

This community extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved friends and relatives of the late Mrs. S. Doane of Sharon, Mrs.
Doane was the mother of Mrs. J.
L. Smith of Queensville.

The many friends of Mrs. Jns.
Aylward will be pleased to hear that she arrived safely in Wolfville, N. S., where she intends spending the winter. Mr. J. B.
Aylward accompanied his mother
as far as Montreal.

United church service will be held as usual on Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Sunday-school rooms. All are invited. A visiting minister will speak.

Monday evening about 20
young people from Maple Hill motored to Langstaff. All reported a good meeting. Refreshments were served after the meeting, and an enjoyable time was spent.

The Doreas society will meet on Nov. 1, at the home of Mrs.
Harry Knights. There will be a quitting. All ladies are invited.

The children expect to have their choir Oct. 29.

Prayer meeting will be held
Friday evening as usual.

The association meeting at Cannington was a great success.
Rev. Mr. McGregor of Stouffville was the speaker in the afternoon and Rev. Jack Scott, Toronto, in the evening, both delivered good messages. A very fine supper was served by the ladies.

Mrs. Bert Scott spent last week in Toronto visiting her mother, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Plummer and Doreen visited Mr. Plummer's sister at Markham on Sunday.

meeting.

Owing to poor health of some of the lake shore members, the hostesses for November will be,
Mrs. H. Horner, Mrs. R. Weddel,
Mrs. E. Nelson and Mrs. H.
Stephenson.

Miss Lillian Holborn of Sutton attended the October meeting in the interests of Red Cross work.
The Institute decided to purchase
15 pounds of yarn for knitting into socks. This yarn will be at Underhill's store, Belhaven, and can be obtained by members or friends wishing to do some knitting for Red Cross work.

Leaves falling and light frosts at night indicate that summer is over.

Next Sunday, being anniversary at Ravenshoe, there will not be any evening service at Keswick
United church.

The Y.P.S. enjoyed a delightful social evening at the home of Miss Helen Smith on Monday evening,
Oct. 16th.

Missison Band, postponed from last Friday, will be held this Friday after school.

MOUNT ALBERT INJURES KNEE CAP IN FALL FROM ROOF

The Women's Institute met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Campbell. Prior to the meeting the ladies visited Geo. Price's dairy and saw the pasteurization of milk in process.

It was decided to buy more yarn for sweaters and mitts to have on hand, as the Institute had been informed that no special work was being asked for.

A committee was formed to entertain the children at a Halloween party.

The three quilts which were quilted a week ago are being sent to Sprucedale.

Mrs. Stiver favored the meeting with a solo and Miss Hayes gave an interesting talk on her trip to Norway Bay, P. Q.

Mrs. H. Harmon gave a talk on the creed. The creed was written by Mary Stewart, a teacher in Longmont, Col., and she saw what women working together might accomplish, and it has been adopted by many Institutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Watts motored to Sudbury on Saturday to visit Mr. Watts' brother, Mr. Stanley Watts, and they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. Price, who went to visit Mrs. Price's son, Arthur Dawson.

Mrs. Wagg of Goodwood has been visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. H. Leadbetter, for the past week.

Rev. R. V. Wilson preached anniversary services at Peaches church, Markham, on Sunday evening and Rev. Mr. Orr was the minister at Mount Albert.

The Women's Institute is planning their usual community party on Halloween night, to be held in the hall.

Word has been received of the death on Sept. 18 at Saskatoon, of Mrs. Byron Forrest, after a short illness. She suffered a severe stroke, passing away a few days later. She was born at Holt and is survived by her husband and a sister, Mrs. Jas. Maxwell, of Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest were former residents here, going west some years ago to make their home in Saskatoon.

MOUNT ALBERT WOMEN SEE MILK PASTEURIZING PLANT

Herbert Hall was cleaning out the chimney on his house one day this week when he slipped and fell to the ground. He escaped with a shaking up and an injured knee cap.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hamilton, Mrs. John Hamilton and Jack, of Ravenshoe, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crowie on Sunday.

Anniversary services in the United church will be held on Sunday, Nov. 5, and a hot supper and program will be held in the church and hall on Wednesday, Nov. 8.

Sunday-school will be held in the afternoon starting on Nov. 5, instead of morning, throughout the winter months.

Several of the farmers around took in the provincial plowing match at Brockville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Toronto are spending a week at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dike.

A much improved corner in the village is the old lawn of the hotel property with the old hedge, which had become a wilderness, all taken away and rubbish burned. One is able to see down the street, and this week will see the building over to the south side of the property.

Mrs. Norman Rogers of Toronto was a guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. Pearson, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Stiver motored to Parry Sound over the weekend to take their daughter, Mrs. Wrightmeyer, home.

Mrs. Fred Franklin spent several days in Toronto last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Broad.

Mrs. Frank Johnson of Kirkland Lake was in town a few days this week at the home of Mr. Fred Franklin.

HELMI WIRTA WEDS STANLEY A. GEE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grew, Jackson's Point, was the setting for a pretty autumn wedding when Miss Helmi Lydia Wirta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil R. Wirta of Fort William was united in marriage to Stanley Armstrong Grew, Rev. J. F. Anderson of Wingham officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. A. Freeman of Detroit, wore a graceful gown of white satin, fashioned on moulded lines with cowl neckline and long raglan sleeves, fitted from elbow to wrist and trimmed with beading. Her full-length veil of tulle was held in place with a tier of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Grace Gowing, of Preston, was bridesmaid, and was gown in a pink French lace, designed in Victorian style, with matching doll's hat in blue with pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a colonial nosegay of cornflowers and roses.

Mr. Alan Armstrong of Toronto, cousin of the groom, was best man.

Receiving with the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Grew and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman. The bride's aunt was gown in beige wool with black accessories and wore a corsage of roses and mums. The groom's mother was attired in black lace over pink net and wore a corsage of roses and baby's breath.

After the reception the bride and groom left on a short motor trip, the bride travelling in a blue wool dress with black coat and accessories and wearing pearls, the gift of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Grew will reside in Toronto.

YOUNG COUPLE WILL RESIDE IN KETTLEBY

A picturesque house wedding was solemnized on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ingram, Maple, when their daughter, Marjorie Clark Ingram, became the bride of Carl Chalmers Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Black, of Kettleby.

Rev. C. H. Bowman officiated and Mrs. C. Miller, sister of the bride, played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Gordon Ingram, and wore a gown of Queen's blue taffeta, fashioned with jacket, and carried a bouquet of roses and fern. Miss Minnie Line was bridesmaid and wore a gown of sapphire blue velvet with nosegay of roses and fern.

Bruce Black was his brother's best man.

A reception followed, the bride's mother receiving the guests in a navy crepe dress, wearing orchid pompons. The groom's mother was in black crepe, with bronze pompons.

After the reception, the couple left for northern points, the bride travelling in a plum wool crepe suit with black accessories. On their return they will reside in Kettleby.

COUPLE WILL MAKE HOME IN ALBERTA

The marriage took place quietly at four o'clock, on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 7, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Rennie, Calgary, Alberta, of their younger daughter, Kathleen Elizabeth, to Dr. Terence James Sullivan, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sullivan, of Cabri, Saskatchewan.

Rev. H. S. McDonald officiated at the ceremony, which took place before the fireplace banked with ferns and white and mauve chrysanthemums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was unattended and wore a becoming afternoon frock of dragon fly blue velvet. Her corsage was of Johanna Hill roses.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held, when Mrs. J. E. McKenzie and Mrs. R. H. Peach shared the honors at the tea table, which was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by white tapers and pink rose buds.

The toast to the bride was proposed by the bride's great-uncle, Mr. Geoffrey Silvester, of Calgary.

The bride is a graduate of the University hospital, Edmonton, and the groom of the University of Alberta at Edmonton.

After a brief honeymoon, Dr. and Mrs. Sullivan will reside in Foremost, Alberta.

FORMER MOUNT ALBERT BOY DIES IN WEST

Born in Mount Albert, 69 years ago, the death occurred recently of David Arnold at his farm, north of Ruddell, Sask. Seriously ill only two days, his sudden death came as a severe shock to his many friends. He was a carpenter by trade and was widely known.

Mr. Arnold helped to build the United church, community hall, public school and other buildings in Ruddell. He was one of the first oldtimers in Ruddell, going west in 1903. He married Miss Almada Crowle of Mount Albert, in April, 1928.

Mr. Arnold was a member of the Oddfellows' lodge and the Masonic lodge and was on the board of managers of the Ruddell Cavan United church, and was one of the directors of the Ruddell wheat pool board.

He is survived by his widow, one sister, Mrs. Stokes (Emma), of Mount Albert, and three brothers, Bill of Montana, Jim of Vancouver and John of Riddell.

The funeral service was held in Ruddell Cavan United church, Rev. W. Sangvine conducted the service. A large congregation attended, coming from North Battleford, Lillac, Denholm, Maymont, Baljennie and Ruddell. Members of the Oddfellows' lodge and Masonic lodge marched to the church in a body.

There were many beautiful floral tributes.

Interment took place in the Ruddell cemetery.

Palbearers were Alfred Pegg of Denholm, Charles Murison, John White, Ross Stally, W. S. Geddie and A. E. Whitelaw.

SUTTON MAN FOUND DEAD ON VERANDA

The body of Charles Harding, 39, Sutton, was found early Tuesday morning on the veranda of the home of the girl who had once rejected his proposal of marriage.

The 23-year-old girl said that Harding had been a "friend of the family for years," but that she had only considered him like a brother.

She said that Harding had proposed marriage nearly a year ago, but had not mentioned it since, and had continued to visit her and the family. He did not seem downhearted about being rejected, the girl said, and had dinner at her home on Sunday. She went out after dinner, and when she returned home later in the evening, Mr. Harding had left, the girl stated. Harding had asked her to go to the city with him on Monday morning, but she had refused, as she said she didn't feel like going.

He came to her house on Monday evening about 7:30 and stayed until nearly midnight, she said.

Harding was well-known in the district, where he was born and raised, and was of a quiet retiring nature, according to friends. He lived with his mother and brother, Michael, on the fifth concession of Georgina township.

The cause of Harding's death was not learned in autopsy examination conducted by Dr. L. W. Dales.

DECLARES CITY LIVING AS CHEAP AS COUNTRY

The annual convention of the Teachers' Institute for the Inspection of South Simcoe and York (in part) was held at Beeton on Thursday evening, Oct. 12.

The new executive for 1939-40 is as follows: Hon. pres., C. A. Lapp, B.A., B. Paed.; past president, Fred Hall; pres., Miss Margaret Murphy; vice-pres., John Scott; executive committee, Miss Dennis, Miss McKenna, L. Melbourne; auditors, E. Cumberland, Mr. Hummel; sec.-treas., J. Moran.

Rev. C. H. Cleverdon opened the meeting with the devotional exercises. John Scott of Ivy, representative for the men's teachers' federation for this inspectorate, gave an interesting talk on the work of the federation. In his address, Mr. Scott pointed out that the old argument of living conditions being higher in the city than in the country is absolutely false and went on to point out that it costs more to live in the city simply because people live higher, but not because living conditions are higher.

Mr. Scott urged all men teachers to stand behind the federation so that the salaries of the rural districts might be raised to compare favorably with those of the cities.

The feature of the convention was the inspiring address given by Henry Howers, M.A., D.Paed., public school inspector for North Wellington and a former Normal school master at Ottawa, on the subject, "The product we seek."

Following Mr. Howers' address, all unfinished business was attended to and the convention was closed with the singing of the national anthem.

OFFER WOOL FOR SOCKS TO NON-MEMBERS

An executive meeting of the Red Cross Society was held on Monday evening, Oct. 10, at the home of Mrs. P. J. Tod.

Arrangements are going forward in connection with the sewing.

Many ladies who are not members have expressed a desire to knit socks.

The committee will gladly provide them with wool if they will call at the headquarters, which are located at 30 Main St., next to the T. Eaton Co. office and will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week from 3 to 5:30 p.m.

Attention is called to the War Charities Act, Sec. 3, (1) It shall be an offence under this act to make or attempt to make any collection for any war charity fund unless with the authorization in writing of the officer duly designated to authorize collection for such war charity fund; (2) This collection shall not apply to any collection at divine service in a place of public worship.

Persons or organizations who wish to help the Red Cross should get in touch with Mrs. W. R. Stephens, president, or Mrs. Harold McClelland, secretary.

MILLIKEN PLOWMAN PROVES YORK'S BEST

North York Plowmen's Association held its annual match at the farm of Walter Woods, Yonge St., Aurora, on Wednesday, under perfect weather conditions. With some 40 entries competing, and many of those being the leading performers in Ontario, Judges L. H. Winslow of Millbrook and Will Hawstrawer of Malton had a difficult time deciding the winners in the various classes.

Top plowman of the day was Ed. Timbers of Milliken, who was awarded the silver challenge cup donated by the Brighton Hunt club.

Timbers was awarded provincial honors at the international match at Brockville this year. Prominent in the boys' sections were R. Shropshire of Newmarket and Robt. Timbers of Stouffville.

A large crowd was in attendance throughout the day and in the evening a banquet and concert took place. Officers of the association are: pres., Russell Gray, Gormley; sec., R. E. Ratcliff, Stouffville; treas., Wm. Timbers, Stouffville.

Eglinton Hunt trophy, Ed. Timbers; J. D. Bailey trophy, Robt. Timbers; Eckhardt trophy, Roy Smith; best hand in jointer class plowed by county resident, Louis Wells.

TOWN'S ONLY FIRE

protection given. We receive one-half of the amount received from outside municipalities for fires there but we certainly earn that. All of us carry on at personal financial loss when you consider the time lost from work."

Mr. Rowe, who has also been appointed an assistant to the fire marshal, J. W. Scott, recently made a survey of the town. As a result the refuse and buildings behind the stores were cleaned up but no houses were condemned. He thought insurance rates were not too high for Aurora.

"The companies must guard against possible big losses, and we have a lower rate here than any municipality in York county so far as commercial and frame risks are concerned. Indeed, there are only three or four other municipalities in our rating," he said.

There have been no big fires in the town limits for quite a few years. "Baldwin's Mill and the Office Specialty fire were the biggest I ever remember and that's a long time ago," commented Mr. Rowe. "In my time, at least, no one here has been burned to death. Many years ago when the shed at Waite's hotel burned down a man received such serious burns he died later but that's the only one."

In his opinion the town had barely enough equipment but again the question of municipal finances came up. "Fire-fighting can't have too much equipment but we've got as much as the town can afford at this time," he concluded.

In addition to protecting the citizens of this town from fire, the brigade advertises the town and is always ready to serve at public functions such as the Christmas tree, hockey matches, special policing, etc. This year at the Whitty convention the brigade won the prize in B class for the best appearing force on parade.

pany, but the dust, but as they had already won in C, their inclusion in B might be justifiable, although, as usually happens to the smaller centres, their winning team had been ridden by the bigger places.

Bradford and Aurora are centres which, if the present set-up had prevailed, would have won lacrosse titles in recent years. It seems time for a new deal if these two grand games are to be revived. If we can't have winning teams, let's at least play each other locally. We believe the funds can still be raised another year if someone in each locality will start the ball rolling.

Pot Pourri
"Fatso" James, who performed with Aurora's hockey squad two years ago, is receiving congratulations these days — it's a boy. The big Bradford boy, it is understood, will play his hockey in northern Ontario this winter. Ross Follott and "Mutt" Collings, defence aces of last year's "C" title-holders, are slated to receive a trial with Atlantic City Seagulls, who will soon commence training at Midland. The Gulls will be handled this year by Bert Corbeau. The Aurora badminton club's dance to be held next month should receive the full support of district sport fans. The entire proceeds are to be turned over to the Red Cross. Bill Bone, lanky hurler of the local softball team, has joined the ranks of the benedicts. He says he will not go into retirement, however, but will be back tossing them up to the plate next season. Soccer matches with Markham and Barrie have been arranged by Coach Norm Johnson for his newly-formed high school eleven. Norm, in his day, was probably the greatest soccer player ever developed locally.

Scarboro are the latest to declare themselves in the fast mounting junior "C" hockey group in this district. Weston and Newmarket will be new entries this year too. Mair, Gillespie and McLaughlin, who were with Runnymede C. I. in the prep school group, look almost certain to be a regular line with Marlborough in "A" this year. It is rumored neither Runnymede nor Northern Vocational will go to the post this year.

"Mickey" Smith, popular Newmarket rider, was unable to compete in the Thanksgiving cycling race, owing to illness. He would have been a real threat for honors.

Harvey "Busker" Jackson, now in training with the New York Americans at Port Arthur, played all season with the Sunderland baseball team, holding down the hot corner.

Frankie Carr, brilliant net minder of last year's champs, is in the army now. He's with the ordinance corps and his hockey future is still uncertain.

CHRISTADELPHIANS

THE BIBLE REVEALS—

That we have arrived at the end of the Gentile times: A time of trouble such as never was. Men's hearts failing them for fear. Evil goes forth from nation to nation, and the nations are angry and like the troubled sea are surging forth to what will finally be their destruction.
